President At Camp David For Sessions With Security Group

By ED CREAUGH

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — President Eisenhower met with his top advisers at fog-shrouded Camp David today in an intensive session aimed at rounding out next year's defense program while balancing the budget and providing a tax cut if possible.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey said just before the talks started:

"I don't give a damn what the (military spending) indications are — I think we're going to balance the budget."

Humphrey spoke with reporters just before the President arrived by car at the mountaintop conference site at 8:48 a.m.

Humphrey was talking about the budget for the current fiscal year ending next June 30, but he and Budget Director Rowland Hughes have expressed hope the 1956-57 budget can be balanced as well.

Asked about chances for a tax cut next year, Humphrey replied:

May Be In Message

"I imagine the President will be saying something about it in his State of the Union message."

This is the legislative outline Eisenhower will give Congress next month. He has said all along that it will be time to think about a tax cut when a balanced budget is in sight. Humphrey gave no further indication today whether the administration will recommend a tax reduction.

Eisenhower conferred privately with Humphrey, Hughes, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of State Dulles before going into a National Security Council meeting that was scheduled to last most of the day.

This was the most intensive day of work he has put in since his September heart attack.

The sun was just beginning to cut through mist that clouded the Catskill Mountain heights when the President drove in from his Gettysburg farm.

Arrive In 'Copters

Some of those taking part in the conferences arrived in blue Marine helicopters. First to arrive by copter were Hughes and Adams and Col. Andrew Goodpaster.

Humphrey and some of the others drove up from Washington. The misty weather made flying a little tricky and the crew of the first copter said part of the way they followed a state highway.

Waiting to greet the President, Humphrey gave newsmen a fill-in on a speech he made last night in St. Louis, in which he spoke of a likelihood that a balanced budget would be achieved.

"Does that take into account the indications of increased military spending?" a reporter asked.

"I don't give a damn what the indications are — I think we're going to balance the budget," Humphrey replied.

He spoke smilingly but with emphasis.

Asked if a balanced budget would mean a tax cut, Humphrey said: "I think I've gone a long way toward determining the content of that message."

Humphrey also was asked if his balanced budget forecast took into account indications now prevalent in the Pentagon that defense spending next year may rise a half billion dollars or so above the current 34½ billion.

"Well, it's quite important, this defense," Humphrey said. "We can't let anything happen to it."

Kiwanians To Mark First Anniversary

Plans for the annual Christmas program and for celebration of the club's first anniversary were made at the weekly dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening at the VFW home. President Ernest Krape presided.

The Christmas program will be held December 20 at a ladies' night meeting and the anniversary celebration has been set for December 27.

A committee consisting of Roy Thomas, Harry Spangler and Charles Graham was appointed to work out plans for the installation of five Kiwanis International road signs and to present a report at the next meeting.

GETTYSBURG'S IFC SELECTED BEST IN NATION

For the second time in three years, Gettysburg College's Interfraternity system has been signaled out for national recognition. At a recent meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference in St. Louis, Mo., Gettysburg's Interfraternity Council was selected as the best in all those colleges having between 10 and 19 fraternities on their campus. The University of Michigan was the best of schools with 20 or more fraternities, while Hanover College, Hanover, Ind., won top honors for institutions with less than 10 fraternities.

In 1953, when the judging was done on a different basis, Gettysburg was named as having the finest interfraternity system among all the nation's small colleges and universities.

Three Local Delegates

Three delegates from Gettysburg College were among the 791 persons attending the meeting in St. Louis. Richard Gaenzle, president of the Gettysburg Interfraternity Council, and Deane Bornheimer, IFC member, were among the 431 undergraduate delegates representing 138 colleges and universities. Dean of Men Robert Fryling attended in the capacity of resource consultant. Gaenzle served as a discussion leader for one panel on "Good Reputation Is Our Most Important Asset."

Each college and university presented the work it performs on campus by means of previously prepared brochures. The awards were based on four criteria: 1. Service to Community, 2. Service to College, 3. Service to Member Fraternities, and 4. Service to Fraternity Ideals.

Other institutions in Gettysburg's category, schools having less than 20, but more than 10 fraternities, included Southern Methodist, Duke, Tulane, University of North Carolina, and Auburn. Auburn was runner-up. Onapa University and Ohio State University tied for second place in the category of schools with more than 20 fraternities.

TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY

The Wayside Flower Shop, 425 S. Washington, will hold "open house" Sunday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock in celebration of the renovation of the original greenhouse and the addition of a new wing.

The floor is laid with flagstones and the walls are of knotty pine with sections of peg board for display of merchandise. The new addition joins the original store and the greenhouse. The original store, a Civil War store home, has been re-done to include more living space for the Forrest Craver family, owners of the Wayside Flower Shop. The new addition is of white clapboard siding with a large colonial door and a curved colonial paneled window. The greenhouse floor has been relaid with white crushed limestone.

The addition includes new display shelves and a large stone planter area for the display of green plants growing on bark. With the expansion in the building the Cravers have enlarged their line of merchandise, including pottery, Westmoreland milk glass reproductions, and Christmas plants and wreaths.

White House Flock Host At Frolic In Hotel Roost

A flock of nightbirds attended a "bird" of a party Wednesday evening in the press room "roost" of the White House correspondents in the Hotel Gettysburg auditorium. Entertainment was offered by Earl Groft and his Twilight Entertainers and various members of the press and White House staffs. Jack Romagna, official White House reporter, was in charge of the feeding station.

Kingbird of the unusual evening was Dewey Long, of the White House communications and transportation staff, who sent out a witty invitation addressed to the Upper Adams County Bird Watchers Association embellished with hilarious drawings of such birds as the "red-breasted martini sipper," the "bleary-eyed bullfinch," the "unhappy bald eagle." These rare species are common only to the life list of newsmen and photographers.

Hundred At Party
More than a hundred people including the members of the press corps, Gettysburg guests, college students, James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, and Dr. Howard Snyder, President Eisenhower's personal physician, enjoyed the antics of their colleagues.

John Edwards of ABC-TV served as chief bird caller for the evening's fun and began the program with a solo by William "Edzo Pinzo" Knighton of the Baltimore Sun who handled "Some Enchanting Evening" with much eclat. Knighton, a kind of mocking bird who declaims as well as sings, also delivered a clever parody on Lincoln's Gettysburg Address written by Bill Allen, AP photographer, which described the woes of the news photographers "engaged in a great photo war" to "make it possible that our editors may live."

Secret Service Agent Henry Nicholson brought down the house with a group of familiar but unbirdlike ditties such as "Mrs. Murphy's Chowder" and "MacNamara's Band." Ernest Vaccaro, AP newsman, also sang.

Shows "Select" Slides
Ed Creaugh, another Associated Press news hawk, showed a group of "carefully selected" color slides and offered a running commentary on the scenes depicted. Creaugh is a prize-winning amateur photographer.

Francis M. Stephenson, N. Y. Daily News, made a brief appearance in the best Coolidge tradition.

Lorna Holland of the White House staff won the ju-jitsu championship of the Hotel Gettysburg when she neatly "tossed" Joe Chang, of the China News Service, a judo expert. Chang also lost face to dapper Dewey Long.

The entertainment was followed by dancing and the party broke up about 12:30 a.m.

Charles D. Ritchie, of the White House Army Signal Corps, was in charge of sound effects for the evening and he and his companions also handled the chores at the "bird bath."

SHOOT DEER

New shipment of Cinderella frocks. Open every evening until Christmas! Rose Ann Shoppe, Baltimore St.

SCHOOLS FEEL SQUEEZE; LACK STATE MONEY

Adams County's school systems are running into financial trouble because the state legislature had not made up its mind about taxation.

While all of the districts seem certain of meeting obligations during December — although some are borrowing now in order to keep going — the districts will be up against serious trouble in January, if the state is unable to provide reimbursement checks by that time.

The districts receive anywhere from $0 to 80 per cent of their income from the state. The last checks they received from that source arrived last March. The schools were supposed to receive the other half of their yearly subsidy from the state October 31. Those checks have not arrived as yet because the state has had no money with which to honor them because of the long delay in establishing the tax that should have been paying for state operations for some months.

Not Yet Critical Here

While some school districts throughout the state have already stopped paying teacher's salaries and others are asking permission to close until the state can send funds, Adams County's schools are not yet in such dire difficulties.

Officials of the Upper Adams joint system, Arendtsville, Bendersville, Biglerville, Butler, Menallen and Tyrone, said Wednesday that all of those districts have borrowed money to operate so far, or are in the process of borrowing, and that it is expected that by the end of January — if no relief occurs by then — all of the districts will have reached the statutory limit beyond which they may not borrow.

Thus the state's failure to levy a tax is costing the districts money in the interest they will have to pay on the money borrowed. Upper Adams officials also said they did not know what would happen if the state has not "come through" with funds by February.

Statutory Limit

The statutory limit on borrowing without a public vote is seven per cent of the total assessed valuation of the district. And no district may owe more than two per cent by the end of its fiscal year, July 1, without going to the voters for approval.

Gettysburg Joint School System is still functioning without extra burden because of the money Gettysburg borough has been able to pay into the jointure. Gettysburg has paid $50,000 into the jointure fund, in advance payments, in order to relieve the burden on the other districts plagued by the withheld October reimbursement. As a result the jointure will be able to pay its teachers through December — after that, well, we'll look forward to that when it comes," Dr. Lloyd Keefeauver, superintendent of the system, observed Wednesday.

Test For Franklin

An end test coming up is the rental in the Gettysburg joint system.

Franklin Township said Wednesday it will have to borrow money in January to meet the rental payment in the Gettysburg system if state funds do not come through by that time. Meantime, while tight pressed, it expects to be able to meet its December payments for teachers, transportation, etc., without borrowing.

Other districts reported themselves in about the same situation — that if relief does not come soon, borrowing will have to take the place of the state checks.

ELKS TO HOLD THREE PARTIES

Three special activities have been listed by the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks for the holiday season.

A dance for teen-agers will be held Thursday evening, December 22, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. "Bud" Codori and his quintet will furnish the music.

The New Year's Eve party for members and their guests will be held Saturday evening, December 31. The music will be provided by the Melo Tones.

Receipts from badges and caps brought in $230.50 and the party borrowed $1,000 from the Littlestown State Bank, apparently to pay the expenses in connection with the Victory parade held at Harrisburg. The setting for the plot was Arizona semidesert country, where a bus has been stopped because of a burned-out bearing. An Indian shepherd and a passing missionary who join the group, inspire "Dave," a college student bus passenger, to present a nativity scene "under the stars." The missionary and the shepherd join the group in the drama.

Refreshments were served by hostesses from Circle One.

GOOD EVENING
If folks were as quick at getting, started at their work as they are getting tired of it, more things would get done.

Biglerville held its largest and most impressive Christmas parade Wednesday evening with an estimated 3,000 lining the streets to view the 40-minute long spectacle.

Sponsored for the seventh year by the Biglerville Business Club, the procession this year had 18 floats in the line of march, in addition to the usual bands, marching units, costumed individuals, commercial entries, etc.

Top prize in the parade, $75 for a precision marching unit, went to the Gettysburg College Air Force ROTC which presented its well known dispersion drill before the judges' stand.

Other Marching Awards

Second award, $50, for precision marching units, went to the Harold E. Bair Drum and Bugle Corps of Hanover; third prize, $25, to the Gettysburg College Army ROTC and fourth prize, $15 to the East Berlin Drum and Bugle Corps.

The $35 first prize for amateur marching units went to Home Room 302 of Biglerville High School, which featured a Santa Claus and a number of girls garbed as Christmas gift boxes. Second prize, $25, went to the Pine Road marching unit of Bolling Springs, which appeared as a band.

A beautifully costumed and arranged Nativity scene won the $50 first prize for floats for the Joy Sunday School of the First Baptist Church of Gettysburg. Second prize, $35, went to the Boy Scout Troop 71 of Biglerville which began "scent" Christmas greetings via a huge replica of a skunk which dispensed perfume in a huge spray periodically. The Biglerville Garden club won third prize, $25; the Biglerville WCTU, $20, fourth prize; Eighth Grade of Biglerville High School, fifth prize of $15, and Girl Scout Troop 40 of Biglerville, sixth prize, $10.

Nativity Scene Popular

More floats than ever before were based on the Nativity scene. A few depicted Santa, and one or two portrayed winter scenes.

The 1928 Packard Roadster of M. G. Rouzer, Biglerville, won the first prize of $10 for Antique Autos, but Rouzer attracted more attention with an entry that defied classification for a prize, but drew the greatest applause and interest from the spectators. The entry was an ancient Eclipse Steam tractor, made many years ago by the Frick Co. at Waynesboro. Its counterpart was a familiar scene in the rural parts of the county several decades ago and Rouzer had smoke belching and the whistle shrilling as the tractor came by the judges' stand, reminding older spectators of the sounds of more than a quarter century ago when the tractor whistle heralded the arrival of the threshing machine long before it appeared on the horizon.

Win Riding Prizes

Second award for antique cars, $750, went to Harold Bucher with a 1929 Hupmobile; third prize, $5, to Edward C. Beard with a 1917 Standard; fourth, $5, to Austin Ruth with a 1921 Hanover, and fifth, $5, to a 1921 Hanover, and fifth, $5, to a 1921 Hanover.

Today's Talk

MIND DREGS

We all know about dregs. Dregs are the waste bottom of things. No good, the useful substance all gone. I got to wondering about this as I read in my library, and stopped to think the matter over. I wonder if the mind doesn't have its dregs, too — with thoughts and opinions long made idle and outworn.

The mind dilates, spreads its substance, and like continuing activity that it may earn its best health and vigor. With dregs within there is a slowing up of all activity and no improvement is created. Unclean thoughts, bitterness, regrets, sordidness, and a refusal to cultivate this mind of ours, leave dregs within.

We can expect little health and happiness so long as these dregs remain in the mind. A new job, new experiences, or the chance meeting of a person who has succeeded in instilling ambition and interest in another, can so change that one that the long held dregs mysteriously disappear! Good thoughts always drive out bad ones.

The measure of a man is gained by finding out just what he carries around in his mind. Make no mistake, the real man, or woman, is there and a little testing will prove the fact. There were no dregs in the mind of the schoolmaster that Oliver Goldsmith wrote about in his famous book "The Deserted Village," for this is the way he wrote of him: "While words of learned length and thundering sound amazed the gazing rustics ranged around; and still they gazed, and still the wonder grew that one small head could carry all he knew."

There are no dregs in the mind of the one who is always alert and with a ready mind to grasp any new thought or truth. There wasn't any room in the mind of Shakespeare for any dregs. A clean mind, a clean tongue, and a clean heart know no dregs.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Outwit Your Troubles"

THE GIFT OF MEMORY

Of all the gifts which God has given to warm and cheer the soul of man

The gift of memory is supreme, the crowning jewel in His plan.

Without it all that's good would fade and love would have no tenderness.

There'd be no keepsakes of the past, no little shoes or faded dresses.

Without the gift of memory to conjure up by-gone delights.

The hours would lonely be and long, and dull and dreary all our nights.

The dead would then be truly dead and lost to us beyond recall.

And every joy which we have claimed would vanish when the shadows fall.

Friends would be ours for just a day, their gifts would never be treasured.

We could not read the splendid past without the book of memory.

And every deed of greatness here which makes the world a better place

Could not endure to thrill and rouse the children of a future race.

Here is the treasure house of man where all the joys of life he keeps.

God's precious gift of comfort for the lonely mother when she weeps.

His inspiration for the brave, His pledge divine which makes it sure

That love is an immortal joy, and all that's good shall long endure.

STEVENSON HITS SOME GOP FOR "GROUP HATRED"

NEW YORK (AP) — Democrat Adlai Stevenson today accused some Republican party leaders of using "hate mongering" for political purposes.

Stevenson termed it "a distressing and a dangerous brand of politics . . . divisive and therefore destructive."

He demanded a "quick end to such practices" lest they harm democracy's chances in the rest of the world as well as here at home.

Stevenson, the defeated 1952 Democratic candidate for president who now is seeking his party's nomination again, unleashed his attack on GOP party segments in an address prepared for the AFL-CIO convention.

"Speak bluntly"

He said he had intended "not to let this become a political speech," but went on to add:

"I propose, nevertheless, to speak bluntly against what appears to be a design to play the ugly politics of group hatred."

He continued:

"It started with the secretary of agriculture's attempt to blame the farmer's current depression on the city worker's wage increase."

"And now the chairman of the Republican Senatorial Committee has charged labor leaders with organizing 'a conspiracy of national proportions' to take over the federal government."

"The national chairman of the 'Salute to Eisenhower' dinners has made his curious insinuating statement that labor became a potent political force in America at about the same time as the rise of the Nazi party in Germany."

"A member of the Cabinet has said that he doesn't 'happen to go along with some of the 'goons' as he puts it, who are 'running things'."

"And a Republican state chairman has proclaimed that labor leaders are Marxist-Socialist bosses who are trying to take this country down a rat hole."

Stevenson continued:

"This, I repeat, is a distressing and a dangerous brand of politics. This is divisive and therefore destructive. We in this country are just emerging from a long and shameful interval of hate and fear and slander. Today McCarthyism is out of style."

"But is a similar hate campaign in the making around distorted images of 'goons' and 'power hungry labor bosses' — ugly phrases we hear almost daily?"

"Must the image of America be further defaced? Is this, indeed, an attempt to stir up class conflict?"

"No election, no office, is worth such a price!"

"Our highest duty these days is to say nothing in the political arena which will hurt democracy's chances among the people of the world."

"And the politics of hate mongering even blights democracy's future here at home among the people of America."

Clement Atlee Accepts Earldom

LONDON (AP)—Clement R. Atlee, who has retired as head of the British Labor party and accepted an earldom, will style himself "Earl Atlee of . . ."

That word came from his wife, Violet, who becomes a countess. She told reporters the blank part of the title is a secret.

"It will be the name of a place closely associated with him, but not Great Missenden," Mrs. Atlee said. Great Missenden is the village west of London where the Atlees live.

Atlee, 72, retired as party leader yesterday. His earldom was announced early today by Buckingham Palace. It is the traditional reward for a former prime minister.

Bullets Bow To Temple Cagers 74-53; Play At Western Maryland Friday

Temple University's unbeaten cagers, rated in many circles as the best collegiate squad in the Philadelphia area, handed the Gettysburg College Bullets their second defeat of the campaign Wednesday evening 74-53 in the second game of a doubleheader in the Palestra, Philadelphia. Villanova topped St. Francis, Pa., 100-77 in the opener.

Hustling all the way, the Bullets gave the Owls quite a battle in the early moments before Temple poured eight straight points through the nets after which there was no doubt as to the outcome.

A goal by Hal Lear, stellar Owl guard, broke a 4-4 tie but the Bullets kept within striking distances at 18-14 before Temple rammed through eight straight points to make the count 26-14.

Shot Percentage Low
The Bullets were unable to penetrate the Owl defense and in the first half were able to connect on but eight shots in 35 attempts. During the game Gettysburg landed only 16 goals on 59 tries. As the first half ended Temple again ran up eight straight points to make the score 44-21 at half time.

In the first 10 minutes of the second half Temple widened the gap to 60-35. Dick Hockenbury, Bullet captain, who accounted for 13 points, went out via fouls about the middle of the last half.

Guy Rodgers, Owl sophomore, fed his team with 22 points, dropping in seven goals during the first half. Lear racked up 16.

Al Teti captured the scoring honors for the Bullets with 15 tallies on five goals and as many free tosses.

In 10 games played between the schools, Temple has now won seven and the Bullets three.

Bob Davis will take his squad to Westminster to battle Western Maryland, Friday evening. The Terriers have been led this year by Hugh McIntyre, a former Bullet, squad member. On Saturday the Bullets meet Albright at Reading.

PHELAN PLANS TO CHANGE MSM STARTING FIVE

Disappointed with the poor showing of his Mountaineer cagers on Tuesday against Catholic U., Coach Jim Phelan plans to shake up his lineup for tonight's charity feature against Millersville in York at 9 p.m. Loyola College of Baltimore faces Elizabethtown in this evening's opener.

Senior Frank Smith and freshman Burt Sheling will start in the backcourt instead of Bill Stanley and Ed Bals for the Mount.

Forced to use freshmen Tito Nanni and Jerry Bohlinger to work the boards, Phelan had expected the veterans to take some of the pressure off the new men. Instead sloppy back court play has had the big men in trouble in both Mountaineer games. Against Catholic U. both Bohlinger and Nanni sat out the second and third quarters due to early fouls picked up as they tried to retrieve wild shots and passes from the back court.

Reserves Shine
Phelan's bench did yeoman service against the Cardinals with Bill Williams, George Donohue, Sheing and Smith turning in top-notch performances to turn the tide in the closing minutes. The Mountaineer club must be at top form against the Marauders or else the Mountaineers will pick up their first defeat of the campaign.

Jack Sullivan, big gun in the Mountie attack, is closing in on Sal Angelo's career record. With 58 points in two games, Sullivan is 65 points shy of Angelo's record of 123 points. At his present pace Sullivan ought to own a new Mountaineer record before the Christmas holidays.

Saturday evening the Mountaineers face Georgetown in Emmitsburg with game time set at 8:30. The Mountie frosh will play the Hoya frosh in the preliminary beginning at 6:45 p.m.

TOP CAGE FIVES ARE RECEIVING EARLY LACINGS

By ED WILKS

Question: Why are even young college basketball coaches either grey haired or balding? Answer: Take a look at what happened last night.

Tulsa remained unbeaten, but only by the grace of Junior Born's two free throws in the final 75 seconds that beat Texas Western 57-56.

Kansas, a suspected Big Seven powerhouse, had to get up and move in the second half to quiet winless Wichita 56-55.

Notre Dame got its first victory in three tries by the margin of Bill Weiman's second field goal of the game, coming in the last 23 seconds of overtime to beat Loyola of Chicago 85-84.

Utah State defeated highly regarded Gonzaga 92-91 on Frank Polak's 25-foot push shot in the last second of play.

Bowling Green was knotted four times in a second overtime before beating Western Michigan 93-89 in the first Mid-American Conference game for both.

Brown downed Tufts 56-54 on two late free throws by Charles Merritt.

And Pittsburgh, which trampled Michigan 75-66 in its opener, had to scramble to beat little Allegheny 99-96 on Johnny Lazor's two field goals in the last 2:16.

Those were the close ones. And there were others which weren't as easy as they look.

St. Louis had to scamper in the second half to beat Centenary of Shreveport, La., 95-84. So did Marquette in its 89-75 decision over Valparaiso.

Yale upset previously unbeaten Connecticut 92-87 with Johnny Lee and Chuck Ross totaling 61 points, but the Elis had to freeze the ball in the last 1½ minutes.

Few Runaways
There were very few runaways, but seventh-ranked Dayton, Cincinnati and Memphis State managed it. Dayton, led by army-returnee Jim Paxson's 19 points, made Miami (Ohio) its third straight victim 73-50; Cincinnati passed the 100 mark for the second time in its two starts, clubbing Tennessee 100-82 with Phil Wheeler canning 31; and Memphis State, topped by Forest Arnold's 46 points, dumped Hardin-Simmons from the unbeaten 102-52.

Villanova got in the act too, routing St. Francis (Pa.) 100-77 with Jim Power scoring 27.

Baylor of the Southwest Conference won its first in three starts, belting Oregon State, 10th ranked last season, to a third straight defeat 62-57.

Hunter Dies Of Bonfire Burns

HUNTINGDON, Pa. — John P. Shope, 65, Heaton, Huntingdon County, was burned fatally yesterday when his clothing caught fire while he was on a hunting trip near here.

State police said Shope apparently huddled too close to a bonfire. They said Elwood Schnauffer, 42, Mt. Union, suffered burns of both hands when he tried to extinguish Shope's flaming clothes.

PLAN THRUWAYS FOR 3 STATES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A revised 637-mile system of new expressways for the tri-state area around Philadelphia was proposed yesterday by the Delaware Valley Council. It said the system would cost an estimated 1½ billion dollars.

The report calls for 33 routes that would lie in an oval shape around Trenton, N. J., south to Wilmington, Del., and from Pottstown, Pa., east 30 miles past Camden, N. J.

Yesterday's report both supplements and revises a plan offered 18 months ago calling for 28 expressways totalling 474 miles, at an estimated cost of a billion dollars.

New Jersey would get 114 miles of the additional 163 miles proposed, Pennsylvania 14 more, and Delaware 1.

Chairman James V. Baney of the council's board of governors estimated the plan, if put in use, would bring about "long term savings of hundreds of millions of dollars in direct and indirect benefits to the four million residents" of the area.

The council said it hoped the plan would stimulate action at state, county and local levels for a "larger share" of any federal highway funds.

The Delaware Valley Council is a regional planning and development agency.

A'S FRANCHISE SWITCH ROCKS PIEDMONT CLUBS

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — The Piedmont League's days appeared definitely numbered today as the Class B circuit hovered on the brink of fold-up.

League President Ben Campbell said the 35-year-old loop faced a "grave crisis" in its struggle for survival in the organized baseball world.

The Piedmont has had crises before but each time has rallied and remained alive, despite many switches in club sites over the years. But this new threat apparently tops them all.

It came to a head Tuesday when the American League Kansas City Athletics suddenly withdrew their support of the Lancaster, Pa., franchise.

Last night Campbell said it appeared Lancaster was through as a Piedmont member, leaving the circuit with six clubs. But of these, Campbell said four are sitting on the fence about going ahead with operations in 1956.

Should one of them decide to join Lancaster on the sidelines, the league would probably be finished. Campbell said it would be impractical to operate with five or four clubs. And he didn't hold out much hope of rounding up a replacement city.

The cities classed on the "fence" stage are Newport News, Portsmouth, Lynchburg in Virginia and York, Pa. The only clubs who have definitely shown a desire to continue in 1956 are Hagerstown, Md., and Sunbury, Pa., said Campbell.

Campbell had scheduled a meeting of league directors for Sunday, but the response was so slight he decided to postpone it until a later date, probably sometime in January.

The league president made it clear he left the Piedmont was on its last legs.

"I haven't given up hope," he said, "but I'm not optimistic."

SPORTS IN BRIEF

FOOTBALL
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — President Tom Popejoy of the University of New Mexico announced that Bob Titchenal has been removed as head coach.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Ed Price announced he would continue as Texas coach for remainder of his contract, which has two years to run, thus quieting rumors he planned to resign.

NEW YORK — Hugh Daugherty of the New York State was named coach of the year by Scripps-Howard newspapers, with 199 votes. Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma, Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Bear Bryant of Texas A & M, Abe Martin of TCU and John Michelson of Pitt followed.

RACING
MIAMI — Parlo was voted the champion filly and mare and High Gun the handicap champion of the 1955 season by the TRA.

MIAMI — Myrtle (43) won the feature at Tropical Park.

BALL FANS, OFFICIALS
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Messages of condolence from baseball officials and from fans were poured in Wednesday to the family of John (Honus) Wagner, all-time great Pittsburgh Pirate shortstop who died Tuesday.

Funeral services for the famed "Flying Dutchman," who established many records during his long career, will be held Friday. Wagner, 81, who had been in failing health several years, had been bedfast about two months before his death because of injuries suffered in a fall at his suburban home. His death was attributed generally to the infirmities of old age.

Yingst, Gagliardi Named To Second AP All-State Team; Capitani Honored

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8 (AP) — Pittsburgh's Sugar Bowl bound Panthers placed three men on the 1955 Associated Press All-Pennsylvania collegiate football team, including its two great ends, mean John Paluck and Joe Walton.

John Cenci, the stout center on the Pitt line, one of four repeaters from last year's team, is the third Panther to the All-Star array. Also nominated for the second straight year were Lenny Moore, fleet Penn State halfback; Pat Tarquinio, Junata's fine back, and Otto Kneidinger, Penn State tackle.

Little All-America

Sports writers and sportscasters throughout the state named the team which also includes Vince Vidas, Little All-America tackle from Drexel; Ray Oncay, Scranton guard; Walter Sylvester, Westminster guard; Joe Gerencser, Moravian back, and big Bob Ford, Bucknell back. The All-State line averages 207 pounds with the speedy, versatile backfield weighing in at a 181-pound norm.

Named to the second team were: Barry Drexler, a second team Little All-America from Junata and Geneva's Bob Price at the ends; Bill Doremus, Lehigh, and Ed Malanosky, Waynesburg, tackles; Earl Shumaker, Penn State, and Jim Shada, Penn, the guards; Sheldon Yingst, Gettysburg, center; Frank Gagliardi, Gettysburg; Dan Nolan, Lehigh; Bryan Satterlee, Lafayette, and Bill White, Westminster, the backs.

Pitt Ends Favored

The voters had little trouble making up their minds about the ends. Almost every ballot named Pittsburgh's Paluck and Walton as the terminals. Paluck, who earned the nickname, "Mean John" for his devastating defensive play, was one of two Swoyersville, Pa., natives selected. Walton of Beaver Falls broke the Pitt scoring record for an end with 48 points on eight touchdowns.

Coach Rip Engle of Penn State has high praise for Kneidinger, the Bellwood, Pa., tackle named to the All-State team for the second straight year. "He played a consistent game and helped bring along our sophomores until they were valuable by season's end. Without him we would have suffered much more on our losses in the line."

Vidas of unbeaten Drexel played as a fullback in the Army in the Far East for your years. Coach Eddie Allen converted the 210-pound Philadelphia into a tackle and says of him:

Lauds Vidas

"Vidas is the most amazing football player I have ever seen. There hasn't been a flaw in his work on both offense and defense. He could play any position if necessary." He headed a line which allowed only six touchdowns all season.

Oncay, one of three juniors on the team — the other eight are seniors — was the strong man in a Scranton line that helped the Royals to one of their best seasons in many years. Those who saw him play described Oncay as the fifth man in the opposing backfield game after game. The Swoyersville, Pa., lineman was equally adept on offense.

Sylvester, 22-year-old senior guard of Westminster, was the primer on trap plays for the unbeaten once tied Western Pennsylvania College. The captain of the team, Sylvester, of Pittsburgh, is noted for his rugged tackling and efficient blocking. He also did more than his share of pass intercepting.

Co-Captain Cenci of Pitt was a 60 minute man who played mostly at center but occasionally took a turn at guard. He backed up the middle of the strong Pitt line on defense. A 210-pounder, Cenci hails from the Schenley section of Pittsburgh.

Powerful Backfield

The All-State backfield is as strong as any named in recent years. Tarquinio, the tailback in Junata's successful single wing attack, scored 48 points. An excellent passer, he tossed as many as five TDs in one game. The 22-year-old McKees Rock back was injured early in the season, but his fine comeback earned him a repeat nomination to the All-State team.

Topped State Scorers

Moravian's Gerencser led the state in scoring with 78 points. Nicknamed Jittery Joe for his puzzling, shifty running ability, Gerencser was responsible for most of the offense in Moravian's successful season of six victories, one defeat and a tie.

Bucknell had a sub par season, but it didn't keep 21-year-old Ford, of Collingswood, N. J., the only out of state, to make the team from experiencing another banner year. The 200-pounder gained 415 yards on 120 carries and scored 42 points to lead the team in both departments. Ford scored three TDs against Harvard. Coach Harry Lawrence says Ford scored as good as any fullback in the East this fall.

GIRLS' SLUMBER FESTS PROVIDE CHATTER, FUN

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Dormitory and slumber parties are the rage, depending upon whether you live at school or at home. It isn't because the girls can't find dates, they say. It's just that one gets bored with the "out" routine, and enjoys sitting around on a real gab fest with the girls. Even after the big dance the girls gather round the midnight oil to a snack and exchange patter, as grandma did.

Forbidden or not, the midnight snack is a tasty morsel. These days you don't limit your repast to items that won't spoil if you live in a dorm. Just load up one of those plastic coolers that looks like an airline bag with hamburger patties, celery, hot dogs, cokes or what have you. There are sling-over-the-shoulder styles, too. Ideal for football lunch soft drinks.

Sandwiches may be made in advance and packed away in the cool bag for the night feast. If you'd like to invite nightmares try this tasty one. Take four giant water like to invite nightmares try this wafers, spread on three — a layer of sardine, one of cream cheese and onion juice, another with mayonnaise mixed with thyme. Top with the fourth cracker and serve cold. Wrap in wax paper early in the evening and set it in your cooler.

Fruit Salad Sandwich

A fruit salad sandwich may be made this way: Slice a thin layer of cream cheese over two unbuttered slices of white bread. Then add a sliced banana, orange, peeled apple and mayonnaise. Wrap and cool. A good bet to remember when a holiday fruit basket arrives.

Canned shrimp is tasty this way: Cut open the little shrimps, fill them with blue cheese and lay them on buttered toast. Mayonnaise with thyme may be substituted for cheese.

And here's a choice tidbit smuggled out of a Honolulu tea party by a friend: Chop up a can of green beans very fine, add mayonnaise. Bet your friends will never guess what the tasty morsel is.

An Hors D'oeuvre Trick
Another hors d'oeuvre trick is this (also good for a guessing game): Take a package of dehydrated onion soup, mix it with sour cream. That's all. Add whatever else you like to it if you'd like different flavors.

Sweet toothers will enjoy the new gauchon-cakes that are little peanut butter sandwiches with just the right amount of sweetness. These are packed in two separate cellophane sleeves so that a packet may stay fresh on your bookshelf, in your desk or locker.

Dormitory parties are special fun during the holiday season. School-girls living at home can enjoy the same fun with a slumber party. Two or more girls meet to chat and eat and sit in front of the fire in their pajamas swapping stories.

TWIN DENTISTS FEATURE DOUBLE TOOTH TROUBLE

SHELBYVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Every day is double feature day at one dental office. There are the usual twin dental chairs.

But you think you are seeing double when the two dentists walk in wearing the same friendly smile, the same facial features and matching dress.

You learn that the bad tooth isn't affecting your vision, after all. You are in the office of Drs. H. G. and T. D. Williams identical twins.

Same Glasses

You learn that they even wear spectacles with identical lenses.

These vigorous brothers who double in gold inlays are 80 years old. They display twin loving cups received in 1952 because they were the oldest twins at the International Twin Convention.

They dress alike from hat to socks.

Lifetime Cooperation

They even worked each other's way through dental school.

Doctor Tom worked as an electrician in New Orleans to enable Doctor Henry to graduate from the Louisville College of Dentistry. Then Doctor Henry started his dental practice here and paid for Doctor Tom's degree.

The double features never spell double horror for the patients, however. Doctor Henry treats most of the patients needing fillings while Doctor Tom handles extractions and prosthetics.

HOLIDAY CLOSING HOURS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Liquor Control Board reported today that Pennsylvania's more than 600 state stores will close at 6 p.m. on both Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, both Saturdays.

Public taverns will have to close at midnight on both dates, the regular Saturday night closing time. Private clubs will be able to remain open until 3 a.m. Sunday on both weeks. That is the normal closing time for clubs.

SOOTHING RECEPTION

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Taxpayers calling at the U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau's office here unload their pain. If any, on the receptionist first. Her name is Miss Nova Cain.

York Springs

PROVIDE FOR WATER SUPPLY
TO NEW HOMES

The York Springs borough council has adopted an ordinance regulating the extension of water mains in York Springs and providing for advance deposits for the work. The return of all or part of the deposits under certain circumstances also is covered in the new measure.

The ordinance requires that when application is received for water service requiring an extension of a town main, the applicant will be required to make a deposit covering the entire estimated cost of installing the necessary pipe lines and appurtenances other than service connections as determined by borough employees.

The deposit is to be returned to the depositor as houses abutting on the new line are completed, the equipment installed and the house occupied by a bona fide water user. Provision is made for return of all or part of the deposit, depending upon the quantity of water used by each new property.

The new measure amends existing ordinances but does not repeal any previously established rates.

The community Xmas tree and lights will be put up and the tree decorated Tuesday night. Members of the Lions Club are urged to come out and help with this work. Committee in charge is J. B. Hershey, Merle Huff and Virgil Mulkey.

On Thursday Ivan Taylor, York Springs, shot an 11 point buck near Big Flat and on Saturday afternoon his 12 year old son shot an 8 point buck.

The annual Ladies night Xmas banquet was held Tuesday night at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Harrisburg with approximately 70 members and guests present. During the evening an octet of mixed voices from the York Springs High School, accompanied by Miss Catherine O'Boyle, sang a group of songs. Paul Osborn, Biglerville, showed films of Xmas scenes. Gifts were exchanged and announcements were made regarding Xmas events in the community.

The Exterior Home Decorating Contest will include the Upper Adams School District. Anyone desiring to enter the contest is asked to please register at Hershey's 5 and 10 cent store. Prizes of $20, $15, $10 and $5 will be given. None of the homes of Lions Club members will be eligible for prizes. The date for the judging will be announced next week. The committee in charge consists of chairman James Hardy, Harold Miller, Glenn Kemper and Robert Rynard. The Annual Xmas Kiddies party will be held in the York Springs Fire Hall on Friday night, Dec. 23, at 7 o'clock.

OLSON PLACES TITLE ON LINE FRIDAY NIGHT

CHICAGO (AP)—Apparently satisfied there will be no battle of the scales, middleweight champion Bobo Olson and challenger Sugar Ray Robinson today marked time for their 15-round title scrap mutually confident of victory at their peak of conditioning.

Olson's fourth defense of his crown tomorrow night at Chicago stadium will be televised and broadcast nationally.

The 27-year-old Olson, who was knocked by Robinson in the 12th in 1950 and lost a 15-round decision to him two years later, will receive a cut of 35 per cent of the gate expected to total $150,000, and the $75,000 TV-radio package. Robinson's share is 25 per cent.

So confident is Olson's manager Sid Flaherty of winning that he has made plans for Bobo's next defense. It would be against Charles Humez, European 160-pound king, in Paris "any time after the Robinson fight if the price is right."

Impressive In Drills
Another possibility, depending on the price, is Joe Giambra, who spent an Army furlough giving Bobo plenty of trouble before losing a decision in San Francisco Aug. 26.

Both Robinson and Olson have been impressive in drills and each claims to have worked harder and longer for this scrap than for any other.

Olson appears to be solemn and edgy. Robinson has been in direct contrast, laughing and joking. Robinson reportedly has worked up to 160 pounds from 156. Olson, who packed 170 when he lost to Archie Moore last June, has had to come down. Bobo now is willing to bet observers $100 that he is 150½. There have been no takers. Olson is a 3-1 favorite.

"Blinky" Palermo May Lose License

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fight manager Frank (Blinky) Palermo has been ordered to appear before the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission Monday and show why his license should not be forfeited.

In its order Tuesday, the commission said Palermo has a long record of association with "known criminals and gamblers."

His trainer, Jimmy Wilson, also was ordered to appear.

Palermo and Wilson appeared before the commission last Thursday during an investigation into reports that heavyweight Coley Wallace, one of Palermo's fighters, was given a sedative before a fight in Cleveland last year.

KLEIN ADMITS IBC STYMIES STATE BOXING

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Although there has not been a major boxing bout in Pennsylvania since last May the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission does not think it has killed the fight game in the Keystone state.

Alfred Klein, local member of the three man Pennsylvania commission, said the group hadn't abandoned hope that the International Boxing Club of New York would decide to promote once again in Pennsylvania.

Klein admitted, however, that the IBC was not inclined to stage its fights in the commonwealth now. Asked specifically if he thought the commission killed major boxing in Pennsylvania, Klein said:

"Obviously these fights and fighters (major bouts and fighters) are controlled by the IBC and until the IBC decides it wants to come into Pennsylvania and operate under the new code it isn't likely we'll have promotions of major size. We have met with the IBC to work in that direction and are ready to meet again whenever they are ready. The door has not been closed by either of us."

Klein said that the IBC's chief

CUBS' JACKSON IS TRADED FOR TWO DODGERS

By JOE REICHLER
CHICAGO (AP)—Rival National League managers were chagrined and embittered over the trade between Chicago and Brooklyn that sent hard hitting third baseman Ransom Jackson to the world champion Dodgers for reserve third sacker Don Hoak and spare outfielder Walter Moryn.

The transaction announced last night, caused a eyebrow-raising among baseball people who were almost unanimous in the belief that the Dodgers got much the better of the deal.

Cub personnel Manager Wid Matthews, who made the swap with Brooklyn vice President E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, announced there will be a "tail" to this transaction sometime next week. The "tail," reportedly is Russ Meyer, the veteran right hander, who will report when the Cubs have gotten down below the 40-player limit to make room for him. The Cubs released Walker Cooper and the 42-year-old catcher signed with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Aggressive Player
Jackson, since coming to Chicago late in 1950, has hit 87 home runs, including 21 last season when he hit 255.

The Cubs believe Hoak will provide the spark the Cubs have lacked for so many years. The 27-year-old third baseman is the aggressive type who makes up for his lack of power with speed, a strong arm and a keen desire to excel. He batted only 240 in 94 games last season.

Moryn, with Brooklyn at the start and at the end of last season, appeared in 11 games and batted 263 with one home run. Between said, "there will be no team at Lancaster next season unless there are sufficient local interests to provide a team."

Earlier the Brooklyn Dodgers withdrew from Newport News, Va. Other Piedmont clubs are Lynchburg and Portsmouth, Va., Hagerstown, Md., and York and Sunbury, Pa.

LITTLE LEAGUE CASE CONTINUES

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A discussion of whether to submit the dispute between Little League, Inc., and its founder, to an arbitration board resumes today in the chambers of Federal Judge Frederick V. Pollmer.

The suggestion that an arbitration board be appointed was made by Daniel F. Kniffle, counsel for Carl Stotz, the league founder who was recently deposed as its commissioner.

Kniffle said the idea was broached to him yesterday by "outside persons."

Stotz filed a $300,000 breach of contract suit against the boys baseball league, then was replaced as commissioner. The question of arbitration arose as the league sought an injunction yesterday to prevent Stotz from setting up a rival group to be known as "original Little League."

Tournament Sites Announced By EIAC

NEW YORK (AP)—The Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference yesterday named these tournament sites:

Wrestling championship, University Park, Pa., March 15-16, 1957, and Pittsburgh, March 14-15, 1958. The conference also named Tom Hamilton, Pittsburgh athletic director, to head its gymnastic league.

Midwest Newspaper Praises Airport Manager For Service

Gettysburg's airport and its manager, Al Strohmeyer, received a "rave" notice in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat November 27.

Writing from here, Edward O'Brien, chief of the Globe-Democrat Washington Bureau, had this to say in part about the airport:

"Fast-spending Uncle Sam is enjoying a novel experience these days. He's getting something for nothing. The tiny Gettysburg Airport, which struggles to break even, isn't charging the government a dime for its heavy use as a terminal by President Eisenhower's top aides, who have been shuttling almost daily between here and Washington.

"As long as the planes don't tear up the place or cause any damage, we won't charge a landing fee," says Al Strohmeyer, the airport's manager-mechanic-gasoline pump operator-farm overseer.

Manager Helps Farmer
"That last part of his title is important. It's only by growing corn, wheat, oats and grass on the extra land around the runways that the airport is able to make ends meet at the end of the year. Part of Strohmeyer's job, as the airport's one-man crew, is to help the farmer who looks after the agricultural side.

"Despite its modest size, the airport is handling as impressive a concentration of officialdom as any airport in the country, except for the National Airport at Washington. . . . On one recent day, there were five Commander flights in and out of Gettysburg, causing more bustle than the normally drowsy airport has seen in several years.

"Here the three runways are short and grass-covered. There's only one piece of radio equipment, recently installed to help the pilot find the place. . . . Until recently pilots heading for Gettysburg in murky weather had the benefit of only make-shift navigation aid. That was to tune in on the town's commercial radio broadcasting station and fly that beam to the transmitter, a mile away from the airport.

No Passenger Facilities
"Government VIP's, accustomed to full-dress treatment in their travels, sometimes blink on arriving here. There are no passenger facilities—just a small cement-block hangar and a garage-like office and shop.

"Inbound planes pull to the edge of the runway and a White House car draws alongside. The reception committee usually consists of Press Secretary James C. Hagerty and perhaps a few reporters. Curious townspeople could gawk to their heart's content, but they don't bother."

Local pilots had a word to add to

She was born at Lantz, Md., the daughter of Yost and Emma (Leisinger) Harbaugh. Her early life was lived in Hagerstown and most of her life was lived in Waynesboro, with the exception of the past 12 years at Smithsburg R. 2. She was a member of the Methodist Church, Lily of the Valley Council.

Mrs. Snively is survived by her husband and the following children: Albert H. Mrs. Paul Winebrenner and Glenn W., all of Smithsburg R. 2; Raymond D., Fairfield R. 1; 16 grandchildren and one great grandchild. She was the last of her family.

Funeral services at 2 p.m. Friday from the Grove Funeral Home, Waynesboro, in charge of Rev. L. Elbert Wilson and Rev. Kenneth Bonham. Interment in Green Hill Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 o'clock this evening.

O'Brien's description of the local airport. The three two-engine Aero Commanders that fly the route between Gettysburg and Washington are fairly heavy and in wet weather their tires make some ruts across the field. Strohmeyer, however, manages to keep the field in good condition. His extra profit for the extra work consists in the sale of an occasional extra soft drink to the pilots.

VFW AUXILIARY XMAS PROGRAM

A Christmas meeting was held by the VFW Auxiliary Wednesday evening at the post home, E. Middle St., with 16 members in attendance.

The group gave $10 to the annual veterans' hospital Christmas fund and $10 to the American Museum of Immigration for the new museum to be placed at the base of the Statue of Liberty, the national president's project. An additional donation of $4 was given for the education of Korean children, an auxiliary project.

Mrs. Mabel Thomas was transferred from the Emmitsburg Auxiliary to the Gettysburg organization. Members of the group on the sick list are Mrs. Emily Kranias and Mrs. Ethel Sease. Mrs. Erma Keefer reported on the last meeting of the Adams County Home Auxiliary. Mrs. Pearl Wiser, president, presided.

Mrs. Lauer Presides
Mrs. Charles L. Lauer was in charge of the Christmas program which opened with a prayer led by Mrs. Keefer. Miss Ruth M. Miller read a story entitled, "The Magic of Christmas." A poem, "Will Santa Claus Remember?" was read by Mrs. Francis Wisotzkey. Carols were sung by the group. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. The favors, made by Mrs. Wiser, were green cards with a "Santa Claus," pines and bells attached.

Miss Beulah Furney and Mrs. Francis Wisotzkey were in charge of the decorating committee. The refreshment committee was headed by Mrs. Keefer and Mrs. Wisotzkey. Mrs. Wiser won the pig in a poke. The next meeting will be held January 4.

SELL PROPERTY ON YORK STREET

Herbert L. and E. May Oyler; C. Lester and M. Ellen Oyler; David A. and Vera S. Oyler; Harry M. and Marguerite G. Oyler and Guy J. Oyler, all of Gettysburg, and William A. and May B. Oyler, of Baltimore have conveyed to Ella A. Oyler, of Gettysburg, their rights and title to a tract of land in Gettysburg at a point on the northern side of York St. at a corner of a lot now or formerly belonging to the late E. P. Miller and extending along that street east to a lot, now or formerly belonging to Howard Spangler, and then north to a public alley, along that alley west to a lot belonging to E. P. Miller then south to the beginning point.

The transfer resulted according to the conditions named in the will of Harry J. Oyler, who died Oct. 23, 1955. His last will and testament, dated June 21, 1947, devised the real estate to Ella A. Oyler, his wife, and provided in the will that "at the death of my wife the home property, if whatever is left, to be sold and divided equally between my six sons."

Ella A. Oyler, of Gettysburg, wife of the deceased, has elected to take under the terms of the will and the six sons have agreed to convey their undivided interest in the real estate to their mother, Ella A. Oyler.

SAYS SENATORS DELAYING TAX 'TIL PRIMARIES

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (P) — Sen. Dent, Senate Democratic floor leader, said today Senate Republicans are seeking to postpone a decision on taxes until after the April 24 primary election.

"That's their strategy — to keep putting off the inevitable to embarrass Gov. Leader," he told a newsman. "Now, apparently, they're pushing this whole question of taxes and appropriations into April."

The Republican-controlled Senate now has before it Gov. Leader's proposal for a 3½ per cent manufacturers' excise tax to raise 320 million dollars.

Dent, despite a new start on publican leadership for more than two hours yesterday in the latest effort to lay the groundwork to break and 11-month deadlock on taxes.

He said the talks were in the "exploratory stage," adding: "I hope that when these conferences are over we will have a firm basis between Republicans and Democrats to discuss the budget and to agree on a tax program."

The conference yesterday, he explained, was devoted to discussing the size of the commonwealth's budget for the two-year fiscal period which started last June 1.

Meeting Hopeful

The only Republican reaction from the session came from Sen. Berger (R-Potter).

"You can say, at least, we didn't regress as a result of this meeting," Berger told a reporter.

Other Republicans also were non-committal. Any decision they make won't come sooner than next week since many of them were en route to the Pennsylvania Society House will come up for re-election next year and half of the 50-seat Senate. Circulation of nomination petition starts next month.

Senate Republicans are poised to pass their borrow-for-school-districts plan next week to remove the possibility of unpaid teachers' salaries or defaulted bonds.

More than 96 million dollars in state aid to schools has been defunct since Oct. 21 and Nov. 30.

Tries To Break Deadlock

Dent sat in with the Senate Re-

dinner at New York Saturday night.

In another development, Gov. Leader assailed as a "beefed-up version" of a quiz show the Senate proposal to sell the tax anticipation notes.

Sees Quiz Show Force
"In the Senate version (of a quiz show)—a real farce if it weren't so deadly serious—the GOP members have voted to borrow well over 100 million dollars to give themselves time to think about a tax program," said Leader in a statement.

The only "apparent qualification" of Republican senators in the so-called quiz show, said the governor, is "11 months of doing nothing."

Meanwhile, Sen. Mahany, Senate Republican floor leader, predicted the excise levy would probably come to a showdown vote in the Senate next week.

PICKENS, S. C. (P) — Prosecuting Attorney James R. Mann walked up to a couple in general sessions court and said to a woman who had her husband indicted on a charge of non-support:

"I see you are getting all lovey-dovey. Are you ready to go back together?"

The woman grinned and replied: "Oh, we stay together. We just fight all the time."

ERIE PUBLISHER CLEARED OF RED PARTICIPATION

By JAMES B. SIBBISON

WASHINGTON (P) — Publisher-broadcaster Edward Lamb has been cleared by a government examiner of charges that he ever was involved in Communist activities.

But the 53-year-old Toledo, Ohio, millionaire still must wait 40 days before he can know whether the license of his Erie, Pa., television station, WUCU, can be renewed.

During that period, the Federal Communications Commission can either (1) remain silent, automatically renewing Lamb's Erie license, or (2) disagree with FCC Examiner Herbert Sharfman's finding that nothing in Lamb's conduct or writings indicates a "guilty knowledge" of Red activities, and refuse to renew.

"Outcome Assures Freedom"

Lamb is publisher of the Erie (Pa.) Dispatch and operates radio and television stations in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Florida. Specifically at issue during the eight-month hearing was renewal of his license for the Erie station.

In a statement at Aspen, Colo., where he was on a skiing holiday, Lamb welcomed the examiner's finding as "evidence of the integrity of our administrative processes," and added:

"The ordeal has been an unfortunate one, but I am thankful that the outcome assures the broadcasting industry that freedom of speech and freedom of conscience will be retained in this country."

Recommends License Renewal

In recommending renewal of the Erie license, Sharfman observed that Lamb had perhaps been naive in allying himself years ago with certain organizations whose loyalty Sharfman described as doubtful.

Nevertheless, said Sharfman: "There is no proof that Lamb personally engaged in subversive activity... His professed sympathy with the underdog, his espousal of 'liberal' causes, and his prominence in the community undoubtedly made him attractive to certain organizations."

"But to say that he was starry-eyed is not to conclude that his eyes must also have been shot with malevolent gleams."

FCC Ordered Investigation

Looking at Lamb's conduct in the round... it is impossible to discern a pattern which negates his

Rescue Three Of Ten From Bomber At Sea

HONOLULU (P) — A two-engine Navy patrol bomber on maneuvers crashed at sea last night and the Navy reported today three of the 10 men aboard were rescued by a sub.

Seven submarines and four planes searched the flare-lit ocean for the seven missing airmen. Two escort destroyers raced toward the scene, 26 miles east of Kauai — a point roughly 40 miles northwest of Oahu on which Honolulu is situated.

Three survivors, picked up shortly after the crash by the submarine Bashaw, were identified by the Navy as Lt. K. C. Guedel, pilot; Lt. (jg.) E. J. O'Malley, copilot; and Lt. (jg.) Robert S. Smith, navigator.

Another P2V patrol bomber on the maneuvers reported the crash.

claims of innocence."

The FCC ordered the investigation into his background in 1954 on allegations he once associated with Communists and helped finance their causes.

Lamb fought back, calling the case a "most horrible frameup."

Be sure to add a dash of basil to tomato sauce for omelet.

JUSTICE READY TO STOP WATSON RESUMING POST

HARRISBURG (P) — The state Justice Department was ready today to "take whatever action" is needed to prevent David E. Watson from continuing as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

Atty. Gen. Cohen said Watson's removal as a member of the commission was "in conformity with the (state) Constitution" and "we are prepared to take whatever action is needed to prevent circumvention of Gov. Leader's action."

Watson was dismissed by Leader effective at the close of business Tuesday but the Philadelphia Republican challenged the governor's right to fire him and threatened possible court action to retain his post.

Watson spent half a day at his desk yesterday but left for home early in the afternoon leaving "no word" when he would return.

A Turnpike Commission spokesman described such action as "perfectly normal" since commissioners spend much of their time outside the office.

Leader ordered Watson's removal from the $13,000-a-year post under a constitutional provision which gives him the right to fire most officials appointed by the governor. Watson contends the provision "has no application to me as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission."

Cohen said G. Franklin McSorley, Democratic commission chairman, would be advised that Watson "is no longer a member of the commission and the commission will be advised to act in conformity with these instructions."

Plans Court Action
In Pittsburgh, McSorley said he will comply "with the governor's wishes and request."

Watson said his attorney, Thomas C. Egan, Philadelphia, a former member of the Public Utility Commission, was planning what court steps will be taken.

"The governor has done what he thinks he has the right to do," Watson declared. "I'm just going to keep on doing what I think I have a right to do."

Contacted in Philadelphia, Egan said Watson would "do what he has always done since he has been a member of the commission and that is to report for duty and do his job to the best of his ability."

Taxpayer Confuses IRS With XYZ Name

RICHMOND, Va. (P) — Virginia's mysterious taxpayer, who signs his name "XYZ," is at it again.

The International Revenue Service this year received $600 in $100 bills from XYZ as his personal income tax. The IRS has no idea who he is. He has been sending in the money in this manner for several years.

BALTIMORE (P) — At the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance of the Social Security Administration here, Joseph L. Fay says his unit has issued Social Security cards to:

One hundred forty-nine people named Davy Crockett.

Two hundred twenty-one named Daniel Boone.

The figures are for the entire United States.

TOPS THE SHOW—Medusa's snake head hairdo by Steinkat was feature of international hairdressers' contest of the Union of Berlin Hairdressers in West Berlin.

School Head Approves Smoking For Minors

SALEM, Ore. (P) — James Lamb, superintendent of the Oregon school for delinquent boys, thinks the state should repeal a law which prohibits minors from smoking.

He said of 119 boys checked at the reformatory, 112 had smoked continuously for two years. This has resulted in "almost a mass resistance to the no smoking rule," he said.

He proposed controlled smoking periods for inmates.

PAYMENT DEFERRED

HARTFORD, Conn. (P) — Police didn't believe James B. Grimes, 35, when he told them he couldn't find a clerk to pay for the $6.50 box of cigars he took out of a drug store. They said Grimes had only $3 in his pocket.

MERGED UNION AND BUSINESS MAY SEEK PACT

By NORMAN WALKER
NEW YORK (P) — The AFL-CIO neared the end of its historic founding convention today amid a disagreement over arranging talks for a labor peace pact with business.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, said representatives of the National Assn. of Manufacturers had talked with him and accepted a bid by Meany to discuss a live-and-let-live arrangement.

The NAM denied having agreed to any such discussions.

While Meany indicated he would try to straighten out the difficulty today, there remained the solid fact that this No. 1 leader of organized labor was courting the idea of working out a nonaggression deal with industry.

Surprised At Overture
Charles R. Sligh Jr., the NAM's board chairman, expressed surprise at Meany's overture. Sligh did not, however, throw any cold water on the underlying suggestion that labor and management could work out an agreement narrowing their differences.

The more than 1,400 AFL-CIO convention delegates hear an address today by Adlai Stevenson, announced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

After Stevenson's talk, the convention was due to take up a resolution outlining AFL-CIO political plans for the 1956 election campaign and wind up convention sessions.

Meany said talks with the NAM looking toward a labor-management nonaggression pact have been arranged to start soon, "on a staff level." He said he would not be in on them at the beginning.

Sligh said that while Meany has been invited to address a NAM luncheon tomorrow, "no authorized representative of the NAM has been in contact with George Meany except to invite and make arrangements for him to speak."

Sets Up New Unit
In AFL-CIO convention developments yesterday, the newly merged union organization established its Industrial Union Department without any fireworks.

The IUD is the unit created within the AFL-CIO as a home for former CIO unions, and there had been hints at trouble because of the application of some former AFL unions for entry into the IUD.

Without opposition or even debate, Walter Reuther and James Carey, president and secretary-treasurer of the now-dissolved CIO, were elected to similar posts in the IUD, with Al Whitehouse, Cincinnati regional director of the United Steelworkers, chosen to be IUD director.

WATSON DEFIES LEADER; SAYS HE WILL WORK

HARRISBURG (AP) — David E. Watson, challenging Gov. Leader's right to dismiss him as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, took up his normal duties Wednesday at the commission's headquarters.

Watson told a reporter as he entered his office that he planned during the day "to clean up odds and ends" on his desk while his attorney worked out the details of a court action to test the governor's right to fire an appointed official before his term expires.

"He'll decide whatever is to be done," Watson said referring to his attorney, Thomas C. Egan, Philadelphia.

Service Terminated
In Pittsburgh, G. Franklin McSorley, chairman of the Turnpike Commission, said he was informed by the governor that Watson's service had terminated as of 6 p.m. Tuesday night.

"I will comply with the governor's wishes and request," McSorley said. He declined further comment.

Meantime, an informed administration source said removal of other Republicans in highly placed appointive jobs could be expected.

Blames GOP Action
The source, who declined to be identified, said the action would be taken on grounds of lack of co-operation by the Republican Senate majority with the administration on the tax situation and failure to act on a long list of appointments by the governor.

In a letter to the governor, Watson said he considered it his duty "to continue as a member of the commission until your assumed right to dismiss me... has been definitely determined by a court of law."

Watson wrote Leader Tuesday that counsel advised him the constitutional provision under which the governor acted in the dismissal "has no application to me as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission."

Term Expires 1961
Leader notified Watson, whose term expires in 1961, that the action was taken under a section of the state Constitution giving the governor, with some exceptions, the right to remove officials appointed by the governor.

Asked what form of court contest he planned to take, Watson said, "That's up to my counsel."

Commenting on Watson's letter, a spokesman for the governor said:

"Mr. Watson's letter in no way alters the action taken by the governor."

Give Dems Majority
The governor's action, if sustained, would give Democrats a 2-1 working majority on the commission.

The turnpike act provides, however, that when three members constitute a quorum any action must be unanimous. The commis-

Amateur Artists Add To Decor With Scene

SAGATUCK, Mich. (AP) — As a contribution to this Lake Michigan village's 125th anniversary, the Sagatuck-Douglas Art Club is painting 19th Century scenes on a 10 x 40 foot awning that once was a sunshade on one of the older resort hotels.

The painted panorama will show the Sagatuck area as it was in the 74-year-old Village Hall. All the 30 artists are amateurs from Sagatuck and adjoining Douglas.

KEEP BABIES' TOYS SIMPLE

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Some parents made the mistake of buying expensive complicated toys for their babies, and then feeling hurt when the infant ignores the fancy new toy and reaches for an old mixing spoon or an empty spool instead.

The most popular toys for the crib and play-pen set usually are the simplest, says Gilbert C. Southwick, president of Childhood Interests, a firm specializing in educational toys.

He points out that one of the best-selling toys of the year is a soft plastic milk bottle filled with wooden clothespins. Babies first rattle the bottle, then dump out its contents then put them back in again.

Adds Intrigue
The partially transparent plastic lets the colored clothespins show through when the bottle is filled, further intriguing the small fry. In addition the bottle is soft, squeezable and unbreakable.

Sales of this simple toy are running at the rate of a million a year.

A companion piece is a set of three half-pint plastic bottles containing colored little wooden objects that look like tempins. For slightly older babies, who have started to walk, another popular toy is a push-toy milk wagon with six small wooden bottles colored to simulate bottles of orange juice, milk and chocolate milk.

The commission, which consists of five members, the chairman drawing $15,000 and other members, $13,000.

In his letter, Watson said "you (Leader) have definitely exceeded your authority in attempting to terminate my office as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission."

"Legal Duty To Continue"
"I must, therefore," Watson continued, "respectfully decline to accept your notice of my termination of office as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and I shall consider it my legal duty and obligation to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission as well as to the bondholders of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission bonds to continue my duties as a member of the commission until your assumed right to dismiss me from the office has been definitely determined by a court of law."

The commission, which administers the 360-mile toll road across the state and its northeastern extension, has operated with two Republicans and two Democrats since expiration of the term of Chairman T. J. Evans in June.

The governor nominated U. S. Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic chairman, to succeed Evans. But the nomination has been dormant in Senate committee since June.

CHILDREN'S TOYS TEACH SKILLS

By DOROTHY ROE
The Associated Press
Santa Claus believes this year that toys should teach boys and girls the skills they will use in later life.

The record billion dollar toy pack now ready for America's 46 million children presents in miniature nearly every phase of the country's peacetime living, from electronic airline pilot training and sports car operation to chef activities and real estate development.

This education trend in the new toys gives children more play value than ever before, says Melvin Freud, president of Toy Guidance Council, which specializes in making it easy for toy shoppers to pick the toys that fit the development needs of their children.

Miniature Chef's Tools
Just as in the grown-up world, there's a great enthusiasm for amateur chef activities, the junior division being supplied with barbecue appliances and miniature cans of soups, spaghetti, pork and beans and a variety of packaged foods that make the toy department look like a supermarket.

Advertised lines of household appliances and industrial equipment get a featured spot in Toyland. Frontier life is a favorite for dramatic play with realistic details of the Wild West covering everything from carbines to check-wagon cooking kits.

Good news for parents is the fact that price tags are about the same as last year, with many favorite toys redesigned, to give extra play value.

Other Career Toys
Among other career-building toys are: A new model auto wrecking kit, an electronic switchboard, a loud speaker truck with search-

POLICE FORCE BRUSHES UP ON DRIVING SKILL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia's entire police force of 4,000, almost all veterans behind the wheel, is going back to school again to learn how to become better drivers.

Among the first to graduate was William F. Quirk, police academy superintendent.

It's a six-day course, which each man on the force must eventually take. There are three days in the classroom and three days driving.

Undergo Tests
Classroom work includes driving instruction, a brushup on traffic light, a radio bike, a tractor with two-speed gear shift, architect kits, model hotel and supermarket, a sand loader and sports car, locomotive and ocean liner hobby kits.

laws and psycho-physical tests. Driving tests include use of signals, operation of the car and braking distances at various speeds. There is also an obstacle course.

One test determines the steadiness of a driver. According to Patrolman Wassen Claus, an instructor, "It can tell almost to the minute what time a person got in the night before."

The apparatus consists of a V-shaped metal slot. The officer takes a metal rod connected to a power supply and tries to slide it between the two sides. As soon as the rod strikes the side of the device, lights flash and a buzzer sounds.

Four Have Failed
Another instrument tests the area which the eyes can see.

At least four policemen have failed the course so far. This device proved that one of them could only see straight ahead. Normally when a person looks straight ahead he also can see objects on either side.

The flunkies have since been assigned to a position where they will not drive.

Employee Experiences Double-Trouble Woes

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — John Rhoads experienced plenty of excitement in a new job at a service station.

He had been at work only two nights when two armed bandits held him up and robbed the place of $52.25. The next night, a motorist ordered his tank filled up with gas but drove off without paying.

County Agent Outlines Care Of Calves, Egg Storage Needs; Cites Sunshine Need Of Sows

By FRANK S. ZETTL
Adams County Farm Agent

Selecting suitable replacements from your own herd is serious business. Normally about one-fifth of the herd has to be replaced annually. This means that only calves from the best cows should be considered as replacements.

You should consider the following essentials in raising better calves for herd replacements.

Provide a clean, warm, well-bedded, disinfected, separate pen for a cow when she is about to freshen.

Disinfect the calf's navel region with iodine solution as soon after birth as possible. This helps prevent infection.

Give the calf colostrum milk for the first 3 or 4 days. Colostrum provides an extra amount of Vitamin A, minerals and protein.

Use sanitary utensils when feeding young calves milk. Warm the milk to about 90 degrees before feeding it.

Need Separate Pen

Provide a separate pen for a new-born calf. It separates pens are not available, tie up all young calves while they are feeding.

Put good-quality mixed hay in a rack for calves when they are 10 days old.

Provide calf starter for young calves when they are 10 days old. Put a fresh supply in the feed box each day.

Give them water. Calves need fresh water to grow rapidly just as much as they require calf starter, milk, and good roughage.

Keep calves off pasture until they are about one year old. Exercise, fresh air, and sunlight are essential but don't turn young calves out with the herd and expect them to thrive when they are all but forgotten.

Eggs In Proper Storage

Eggs will not freeze until the temperature goes below 29 degrees, but for best results they should be held in a temperature between 40 and 55 degrees. It is also important that the storage room has approximately 75 per cent relative humidity.

If the eggs are held in a house cellar in which there is a furnace, the chances are that they will not be top grade, for the furnace usually keeps the cellar too warm and dry. A small section of the cellar can be partitioned off with building board to make a satisfactory egg room. High humidity can be maintained in this room by hanging up wet bags or spilling water on the floor or wall. A few empty cases should be stored in the egg room for several days in advance of the time they will be used for the eggs so that they will absorb moisture. If eggs are packed into very dry cases, the packing material and the case will absorb moisture from the eggs, and chances are these eggs will have large air cells which are objectionable. Pack eggs daily, even though the holding conditions are considered satisfactory.

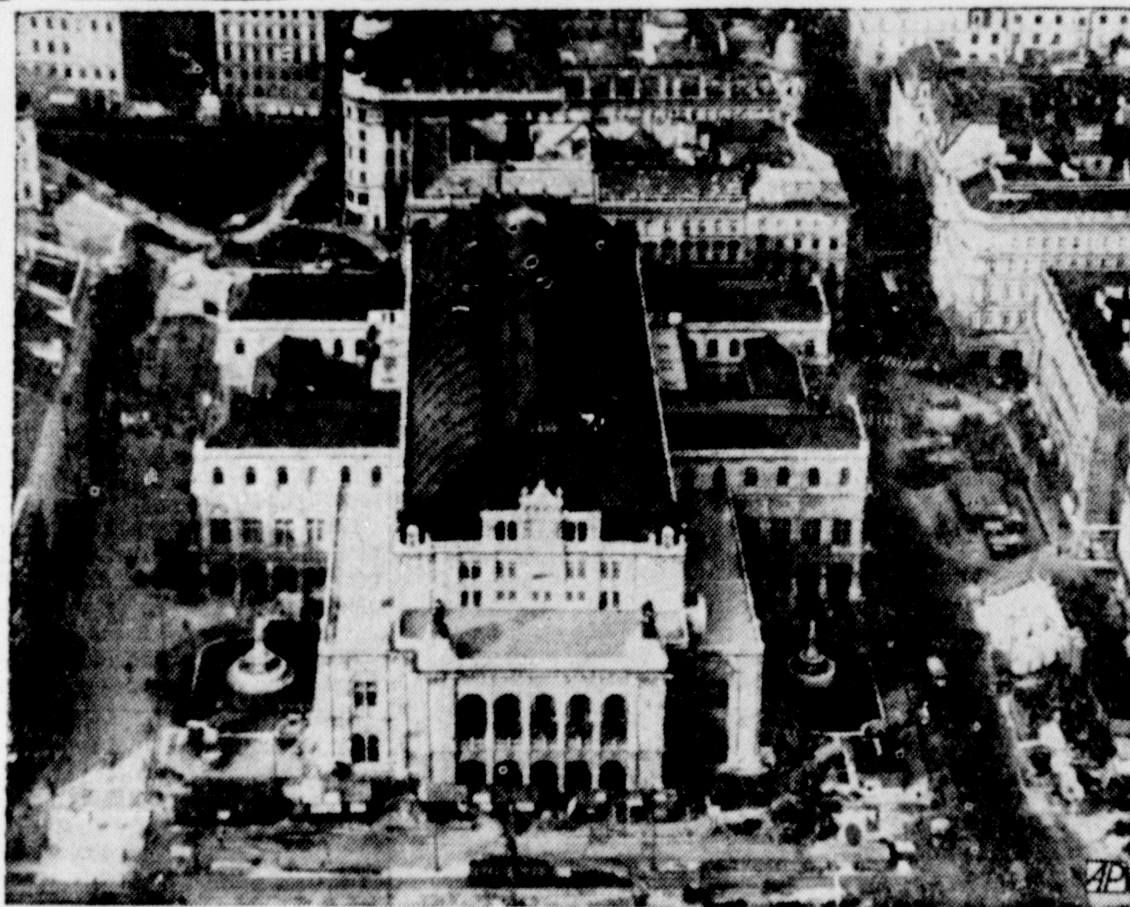

If a few eggs that are two or three days old are candled it can be determined whether the holding conditions are satisfactory. Large air cells, mottled condition of shell, and considerable mobility of the yolk when the eggs are turned before the candle indicate the holding room is too warm and dry.

Take Exercise In Open

Sows need sunshine. It synthesizes vitamin D. In summer they get plenty of sunshine on pasture, but in winter when days are short sows should be permitted, or forced, to exercise in the open. In winter they also miss summer's green grass, but that lack can be made up to a large extent by feeding alfalfa or other good legume hay.

During the first half of the gestation period brood sows may be fed 35 to 50 per cent alfalfa hay (by weight) in their ration — 15 to 20 per cent during the last half when the pigs are developing rapidly and the sows need more digestible nutrients.

Legume hay can make up 10 to 15 per cent of the ration for growing and fattening hogs in winter. It produces good results and lowers feed costs.

PRESIDENT'S FUTURE HINGES ON ARTERIES

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is 65. The Republicans hope he will run again. He's their chief hope of winning in 1956. But can he run?

The word of his doctors on whether he can run and what they tell him—perhaps in February—depends on the condition of his heart.

But one of the most vital things they cannot tell him about at all is the condition of his arteries.

There was nothing wrong with Eisenhower's heart the moment before he suffered the attack. The trouble was in one of the blood vessels to the heart.

Its walls had thickened. Finally blood through that vessel was shut off. This lack of blood damaged the heart. Eventually a scar formed.

How Much Damage?

Then this problem arose as it does in such cases: Just how badly was the heart damaged? That would take time to show. How could the damage show? The heart could get enlarged. Varying waves on the electrocardiogram would indicate something wrong too.

The doctors have been making constant checks. So far they've reported Eisenhower has been doing all right. If they found the heart was too damaged to undergo the rigors of the presidency, they'd tell him so. They haven't yet. They are still checking.

Immediately this question arises: the question about his arteries, not his heart.

One blood vessel was affected to the point of closing. If one vessel was in bad shape, one might ask, isn't it reasonable to assume the other vessels to the heart are just about as bad and that it's only a matter of a short time before another closes and he has another attack?

Specialist's Explanation

It isn't reasonable to assume that, and this is said on the advice of one of the best heart doctors in the country. Why? Because only one section of one artery may have been so thickened it would close.

This was the specialist's explanation: Doctors know that one vessel was badly diseased. The closing of it was proof. But they don't know whether the other vessels are in that shape. Eisenhower might never have another heart attack.

But the older a man gets, generally, the more the deterioration in his blood vessels. Generally, that is. And generally, a man younger than Eisenhower would have less reason to expect a heart attack than Eisenhower.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate had before it today a measure that would switch the authority for issuing antlerless deer licenses from the offices of county treasurers to the Revenue Department.

The bill was introduced yesterday by Sens. Dent (D-Westmoreland) and Kessler (R-Lancaster). Several identical proposals have been introduced in the House.

SEEK FEDERAL AID FOR DAM AT WALLPACK BEND

HARRISBURG (AP)—State legislators of Pennsylvania and New Jersey moved ahead Wednesday in their plans to seek federal aid for possible construction of a dam on the Delaware River.

"We expect to contact the congressional delegations of both our states as soon as possible to find out what federal aid, if any, we can get in this proposed 70 million dollar project," said Sen. Yosko (D-Northampton).

Yosko headed a six-member Pennsylvania House-Senate committee which met Tuesday with a similar group from the neighboring state to lay preliminary plans for the possible construction of the dam at Wallpack Bend, Pike County, Pa.

This would be the first such project ever undertaken on the river. "There are a lot of things we must talk about with our congressional delegations before we know just where we stand on this matter," the Northampton County lawmaker explained.

The New Jersey delegation, headed by State Sen. Wayne Dumont Jr., agreed tentatively to location of the dam at Wallpack Bend and also suggested that his state be given better than a 50-70 participation in the cost and benefits to be gained from such a project.

Under the legislation authorizing the construction of the dam within the next 50 years, Pennsylvania was given a 70 per cent share in the cost and benefits from the dam. Dumont said his state would prefer a 50-50 arrangement on the dam.

Joseph J. McLean, New Jersey commissioner of conservation and economic development, reminded that "nothing about our decisions here today are final pending a report we will receive at the end of the year from an engineering firm making a survey of the situation." Yosko, who is chairman of the Pennsylvania delegation, said two possible means of bistrate financing of the project were discussed. They were:

1. Finance the project through the Pennsylvania General State Authority with Pennsylvania, New Jersey and possibly the federal government sharing the cost.
2. Establish a bistrate authority which would have to be approved by the General Assemblies of both states and Congress.

Yosko said the group agreed to hold public hearings on the proposed project sometime in the future to "determine the public feelings on the matter."

Minister Dies In Crash; Son Saved

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A Lancaster County Mennonite minister was killed Tuesday night when his automobile crashed into a tree along Rt. 113 seven miles west of Doylestown.

The victim was identified as the Rev. Luke A. Hurst, 45, of Ephrata, Pa. With him at the time of the crash was his 11-year-old son, Paul, who wasn't hurt.

3 YOUTHS CHAIN, BURN H. S. HITCHHIKER; ESCAPES

CLEVELAND (AP)—A frail, scholarly boy, his naked body blistered with burns and a 12-foot tree limb dragging from a chain around his waist, lurched into Fairview Park Hospital Tuesday night through a kitchen door.

He said three other youths had chained him to a tree, drenched him with turpentine and lighted it. Suffering second and third-degree burns over 85 per cent of his body, 17-year-old Earl R. Fryman was in poor condition Wednesday.

Staggered Mile For Help The attack took place in the heavily wooded Rocky River Valley in Metropolitan Park near the western suburb of Fairview Park. Fryman had to walk a mile to reach the hospital, on the edge of the deep valley.

He told police three strange youths about his own age picked him up Tuesday morning as he was hitchhiking to St. Ignatius Parochial School, where he is a senior. Because the car had St. Ignatius stickers on the windshield, he said, he thought they attended the same school.

But instead of taking him to school, they held him captive and drove around Cleveland until dusk, he continued.

Youths Mad, Disgusted Then for some reason the three became "mad and disgusted," he said, and drove down into the river valley, where they chained him to the tree and secured the chain with a cheap padlock. He said he could not explain their motive.

He said that when the youths left him, he broke loose from the tree and rolled on the ground to

Beer-Liquor License Bill Fails In House

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill to authorize the Liquor Control Board to exchange some 1,500 beer-only licenses for beer and liquor permits was defeated in the House Tuesday by 35 votes.

The 71-90 vote crossed party lines. It takes 106 to pass a bill. Specifically the board would have been permitted to exchange existing retail dispenser's licenses and club retail dispenser's licenses for restaurant and club licenses.

Rep. Hooker (R-Dauphin), co-sponsor of the plan, and Rep. Moran (D-Allegheny) changed their votes to no to permit reconsideration.

Police found his clothing snagged on a branch overhanging the river. An empty turpentine can lay nearby and Fryman's schoolbooks were on the river bottom.

BRITAIN GRANTS SOVIETS CANAL TRAFFIC RIGHTS

BERLIN (AP)—Great Britain has conceded the right of the East German Communist government to control the inland waterways which help feed Berlin, it was disclosed Tuesday.

American and French headquarters here withheld immediate comment on the stand taken by the British Foreign Office in the mounting East German drive to win recognition of its "sovereignty."

Though the British conceded to a Russian move turning canal traffic permits and general controls over to the East Germans, the Foreign Office emphasized that it would continue to hold the Soviets responsible should something go wrong.

Take Dim View The West German federal government took a grave view of the situation in which one-third of isolated West Berlin's supplies could be subject to Communist whim. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's ministers for foreign affairs, traffic, economics and German reunification will hold an emergency meeting in Bonn Thursday to deal with the Eastern demand that barge traffic problems be negotiated between the two governments. The demand was contained in a letter sent 10 days ago.

Meanwhile the East German Communist organ, Neues Deutschland, accused the Western Powers of breaking all four-power agreements on Berlin. The charge was part of the Reds campaign to justify their claim that four-power rule in the divided city is ended.

Indict 48 In N. J. Vote Fraud Probe

TOMS RIVER, N. J. (AP)—Twenty-three more persons were under grand jury indictment Wednesday in connection with alleged fraudulent voting in Ocean County.

The indictments, returned Tuesday, brought to 43 the number of persons charged since the probe of purported vote frauds got under way.

As listed in the indictments, those accused are from the Philadelphia area but have Ocean Gate addresses.

The charges against them include soliciting unlawful voter registration, unlawful voting, and false voting in elections—both primary and general—from 1952 through 1955.

No arraignment date was set after the indictments were handed up to Superior Court Judge Frederick W. Hall.

SUGGEST THREE VACCINE SHOTS FOR YOUNGSTERS

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special advisory group has called for continuation of the present system of giving youngsters three shots of Salk antipolio vaccine, spaced out over about eight months.

Surgeon General Leonard A. Scheele reported the recommendation yesterday after a meeting with the experts including representatives of the medical and health professions and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. One finding in the vaccination program last summer was that a single shot protected 75 to 80 per cent of those getting it against paralytic polio. Because vaccine supplies are short, the group discussed giving just one shot at all in the susceptible ages before administering the second and third shots. He said:

Seek Solid Protection
After the daylong conference, however, Scheele reported the specialists unanimously favored keeping on with the present method. He said:

"Although it is evident that the infection of one c.c. (cubic centimeter, equal to one shot) produces a marked degree of immunity, it was found that there is not enough scientific evidence of the duration of immunity after a single dose

MARKET BASKET STORES BOUGHT BY ACME CHAIN

GENEVA, N.Y. (AP)—American Stores Inc. (ACME) of Philadelphia, the nation's fourth largest supermarket chain, has agreed to buy the Market Basket chain in a $3,600,000 transaction. William Park, chairman of the board of American, and Gordon Hovey, Market Basket president, announced the sale jointly last night, subject to approval of stockholders of both concerns and confirmation that it is a tax-free reorganization under federal tax laws.

American will obtain the assets of Market Basket, which has its headquarters here, for 63,144 shares of American common, which closed at 57½ dollars a share on the New York exchange Tuesday.

Has 92 Stores
Market Basket has 92 stores in central and western New York and northern Pennsylvania. Its annual sales are about 31 million dollars. American Stores, which had 1,076 stores at the end of 1954, ranks fourth behind A&P, Safeway Stores and Kroger Markets. It had sales of more than 611 million dollars last year.

Each share of Market Basket common is to receive 0.52 share of American. Outstanding first preferred Market Basket stock would be called for redemption about April 15, 1956. Outstanding second preferred Market Basket stock would receive two shares of American for every share.

Purse accessories from pill box to comb case, leather covered or in silver and gold plate are sure-fire hits. Good nail scissors or cologne are welcome too. Ditto

GIFT STOCKING CAN BE BRIGHT, GAY AND USEFUL

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

The Christmas stocking stuffer is the most versatile gift in the world. It is certainly the answer to the Yule shopper with a small budget. It is the ideal token gift for baby sitter, nurse, grocery clerk, favorite sales girl, teacher, cleaning woman, small-fry cousins, aunts, and visiting firemen.

Put it in the Christmas stocking for members of the family. Wrap it in unusual packaging for outsiders.

Use Imagination
If you're looking for ideas, run the gamut of gifts in the bracket you can afford. Glamor types deserve a gift of imagination even though it is inexpensive. Tag for them small perfume atomizers. One new one may be refilled each hair ornament, powder compact, face lotion. Soap in interesting shapes also appeals to the sub-deb set.

You can make some interesting gift packages by wrapping your little present and then fastening a special ornament to it. Take a few tiny Christmas ornaments and a couple of pine cones, tie them together to attach to the package. A little angel might be made out of a celluloid ball painted — with cotton hair, aluminum foil wings. Or take some colored straws, fasten them to your ribbon to make an interesting pompon.

You can find interesting ideas to perk up your small package. It is always more fun to have an attractively wrapped package even if the gift is a diamond ring. It is fun to guess for a few minutes before the gift is opened.

CHILDREN BAKE, PAINT GLASSES FOR YULE GIFTS

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Youngsters can be kept busy and at the same time get a lot of pleasure out of making their own Christmas presents.

One fun-project is painting on glasses. The kids can use them for Christmas gifts, giving sets of two, four, six or more to friends. Comic strip characters, names, messages, initials or slogans may be painted on the glasses, using hard surface paints found in artist supply stores. Popular-priced glasses may be found in variety and department stores.

Lightweight mugs, ideal for milk or soda pop, make a big hit with small fry. Glasses should be thoroughly clean of film and grease before the design is applied. Painted surfaces should not be touched with the hands as the youngsters work to avoid smudges. If a large project is too tedious for a small boy or girl, let them paint initials on the glasses. They don't have to be perfect. They'll make a hit with the recipient no matter.

Paint Cartoons

Here's how to put a comic strip design or cartoon on the glasses: Cut the cartoon character from the comic strip. Attach it to the inside of the glass in the position you want the design applied, using masking tape.

Clean the outside of the glass thoroughly with surface cleaner that comes with the paint or with a standard cleaning fluid with a nonoil base applied with a soft cloth to remove all film and grease.

Trace around the outline of the design with a fine brush dipped in black or colored paint. When this dries, the paper pattern may be pulled from the inside of the glass unless you want to fill in colors from the original design.

Color Hints

Mix colors in separate glass containers if special tints are desired or work from the paint jar if just using one basic color. Brush in all areas that are in one color, allowing it to dry thoroughly. Then go on to the next color, continuing until the design is completed.

To set the colors for added durability allow the glasses to air-dry for twelve to twenty-four hours. Then place finished pieces in a cold oven and allow the temperature to gradually reach 300 degrees Fahrenheit. Maintain this temperature for 15 minutes and turn off the heat. Let glasses remain in the oven until the oven is cool again. Be sure you have chosen ceramic colors that may be baked in a home oven and follow directions.

Designs for glasses, plates or serving pieces can also be taken from gift-wrapping paper, wall paper, greeting cards, magazine illustrations.

USE LEFTOVERS FOR HOLIDAY LADIES' LUNCH

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

A ladies lunch during the holidays should have a main course that looks pretty, tastes good and uses leftover turkey! All three requirements are embodied in this recipe for Turkey-Stuffed Avocado.

For the dish you prepare a batch of well-seasoned creamed turkey; then just before serving, you cut avocados in half and fill them with the hot turkey mixture. Then you add a topping of buttered bread crumbs and grated Parmesan cheese and broil a few minutes.

Serve the Turkey-Stuffed Avocado with a salad of greens — chicory and endive are a good choice — and grapefruit sections. If you have a tiny star-shaped cutter, use it to make bright pimiento stars for a festive garnish. Accompany the salad with French dressing and paper-thin bread-and-butter sandwiches or hot biscuits or rolls.

Dessert can be easy: Holiday fruit cake and cookies served with lots of good strong hot coffee or cups of bracing tea.

Turkey Stuffed Avocado

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/4 cup finely diced green pepper, 1/2 cup finely diced celery, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon Tabasco sauce, 2 cups diced cooked turkey, 3 medium-sized avocados, lemon or lime juice, 1 cup soft bread crumbs (buttered), grated Parmesan cheese.

Method: Melt butter in saucepan; add green pepper and celery; cook slowly, stirring often, until partly tender. Stir in flour, salt and mustard. Stir milk and Tabasco together; add to flour mixture. Cook and stir constantly over moderately low heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Remove from heat; stir in turkey. Cut avocados in half lengthwise; remove pits. Brush cut surfaces with lemon or lime juice. Spoon hot turkey mixture into avocado cavities; top with buttered bread crumbs; sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese. Place in preheated broiler 2 inches below heat. Broil 2 1/2 to 3 minutes, or until crumbs are lightly browned. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

Prepare Mixture Ahead

Note: The creamed turkey mixture can, of course, be prepared ahead. If this is done, reheat thoroughly just before serving and while you prepare the avocados, then fill the avocado halves and broil as directed.

Japanese Have Baby Theory

TOKYO (AP) — Prof. Hajime Uda of Tokyo's Meiji University has come up with quite a theory on how to tell whether women will have girl babies or boy babies.

If the husband is well fed, he's likely to father girls. If the husband is "tired out, perennially undernourished" he will tend "to sire male heirs more frequently," says the professor.

Uda says he made a survey of Uda concedes his theory hasn't got much support from others as far.

WESTINGHOUSE, IUE TRY AGAIN TO END WALKOUT

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. and the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers decided to make another effort Wednesday to settle the union's 53-day strike at 30 Westinghouse plants across the nation.

Negotiations recessed Tuesday with no report of progress toward settlement of the strike by 44,000 IUE members.

Meanwhile, Westinghouse took court action in two states to try to obtain orders against mass picketing.

Hearing Called
In Pennsylvania, the company asked Judge Herman Rodgers of Mercer County Common Pleas Court to extend an injunction that limits picketing at the Sharon plant. The injunction placed responsibility for orderly picketing on both the company and the union. Judge Rodgers set Thursday as the date for a hearing at Mercer, Pa., on the company request. In Indiana, the company obtained an order from Judge John W. Macy of Randolph County Circuit Court that bans mass picketing at the Union City plant.

Order Limits Pickets
The order limits the number of pickets to three to a plant gate and directs the union to allow persons to enter and leave the plant. Judge Macy set Saturday as the date for a hearing on whether to continue the order.

The company contends that pickets had prevented supervisors and out-of-town personnel from entering the plant. Homer Price, an international representative of the union, denied the company allegation.

PILOT SAFE IN JET-HOME CRASH

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A Navy Banshee jet plane crashed in Richmond's fashionable Windsor Farms residential section Wednesday and set two houses on fire.

The pilot, Ens. Robert Amman, parachuted to safety in a Richmond residential area. He talked with a newspaper reporter by telephone soon afterwards. He was apparently unhurt.

The jet was assigned to the Oceana Naval Air Station at Virginia Beach.

Flying At 20,000
"I was flying at about 20,000 feet when something went wrong," Amman said. "I don't know what happened. The plane was uncontrollable and I bailed out. It was an ejection seat. It took me 15 minutes to land."

Amman, 22, of Dallas, Tex., landed

DECLARES U. S. IS OVERBOARD ON SECURITY

NEW YORK (AP)—The man who will head the National Assn. of Manufacturers in 1956 declared today that the United States "has gone completely overboard on security."

"Everything has to be secured—jobs, wages, hours," said Coia G. Parker, retired board chairman of Kimberly-Clark Corp., Neenah, Wis., will be formally elected president of the NAM at a meeting of the Board of Directors tonight. He will succeed Henry G. Riter III, president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., West Orange, N. J.

Parker called on the 3,000 industrial leaders attending the convention to set an example for the country by insisting that their communities refuse to accept federal government help wherever possible.

"We have no right to criticize the farmer or the laborer for his reliance on government unless we stop doing it ourselves," he said. "Let us stop relying on the Great White Father, who has nothing to give us except what he took away from us in the first place."

Parker declared that "in the 41 years from 1913 to 1954 our taxes were multiplied 45 times—from two billion dollars a year to more than 90 billions. Even more importantly, Uncle Sam's bite of this total widened from 33 per cent in 1913 to 75 per cent last year."

In making the announcement Tuesday, Judge Lansberry said he "decided to seek the Republican nomination for the forthcoming vacancy only after receiving more than the usual encouragement from lawyers, judges and Republican leaders in all parts of the commonwealth."

The vacancy on the Supreme Court bench will occur when Chief Justice Horace Stern's term expires. Judge Lansberry is the first to say he will seek the post.

HOPES TO OPEN MORE FIELDS TO GERMAN WOMEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Hanna Kiep, women's affairs secretary of the German diplomatic mission here, is trying to encourage her countrywomen to make the American slogan "never underestimate the power of a woman" come into wider use in her homeland.

Mrs. Kiep, a handsome, clear-eyed, Wagnerian type, maintains close contact with American women in public life and in women's organizations, trying to "build better understanding and to interpret the hopes and struggles of women in all walks of life."

"I believe," she told me, "that most American women look upon my mission here as a compliment to themselves and to work they have done, as well as an expression of my country's earnest desire to pave the way for the greater participation of German women in all walks of life."

Served Two Posts

Her husband, the late Dr. Otto C. Kiep, served in the United States from 1926 to '33, first as counselor to the German Embassy in Washington, and later as consul general in New York. In 1933 when he resigned from the foreign service in protest against

Chopped Down Raises For Judges Passed

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee Tuesday night approved the bill introduced nine months ago but cut the proposed salary increases by as much as $8,000 a year.

Under the present form of the bill the annual salaries of judges and associate judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts and the courts of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Dauphin County would be raised $5,000 a year.

The measure also provides that judges of all other courts in the state would receive $4,000 a year increases.

Alan Wood, Steel Director, Dies

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Alan Wood, 34, a member of the fourth generation of his family associated with the Alan Wood Steel Co., died Tuesday. He was a director of the 129-year-old firm in suburban Conshohocken. Funeral services were held today.

Wood died in suburban Bryn Mawr Hospital after a brief illness.

The National Socialist government, they returned to Germany where subsequently he lost his life in the Nazi purge. Mrs. Kiep, who had also been arrested, was released after some months' imprisonment.

Emphasizing that the "12 years of Hitler tyranny" had produced a severe setback in the development of the German woman as a citizen, she added that nevertheless, the voting record of women in the postwar elections had played a significant role in the readmission of Germany to the family of nations.

Mrs. Kiep, who recently returned from several months' leave in Germany says the big task confronting German women in the years ahead is helping in the adjustment of the thousands of German held prisoners of war by Russia for more than a decade who are being returned "thanks to what Chancellor Adenauer has done . . . we had to pay a high price for it—diplomatic relations—but the price was necessary because the happiness of more than 100,000 families is at stake."

A law student who attended the Universities of Berlin, Oxford and Geneva, Mrs. Kiep has been in Washington since 1951.

PICK UP SECOND MAN FOR BANK ROBBERY IN N. J.

MARLTON, N. J. (AP)—Camden stone mason was arraigned Tuesday on a robbery charge and held for grand jury action in the holdup of the First National Bank here.

Anthony Ranalli, 34, picked up Tuesday night at his home at Camden, waived a hearing before Magistrate Oliver S. Bowen and was ordered held in the Burlington County Jail.

His arrest followed by several hours the apprehension in Philadelphia of Louis A. Strohmetz, 23, at the home of friends.

Admits Being There

State police Lt. John E. Hart said Ranalli had admitted accompanying Strohmetz to Marlton, where the bank holdup was staged on Monday. Ranalli was quoted as saying they rode here in separate cars and left the same way.

State police and FBI agents have been working on the case since the pickup. Harvey G. Foster, agent in charge of the Newark FBI office, said a total of $8,188 of the loot has been recovered. The amount stolen from the bank, he said, was $8,966.52.

Ranalli and Strohmetz both are married. Ranalli has three children and Strohmetz an 8-month-old son. Strohmetz, identified as a Philadelphia auto salesman who resides in suburban Lansdowne, Pa., was arraigned Tuesday before a U. S. commissioner in Philadelphia and held in $10,000 bail. He has denied any connection with the bank holdup.

Leaders' Milk Bill Defeated In House

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Leader Administration plan to put the state Milk Control Commission on a self-sustaining basis has failed to gain approval of the Democratic-controlled House.

A bill to carry out the changes, including an increase in dealers' license fees, was defeated 96-78 Tuesday. It takes 106 votes to pass a measure.

Four Democrats were recorded voting against the bill while five Republicans voted yes.

Three other Democrats, however, changed their votes to no in a parliamentary move that will permit reconsideration.

$30,000 TO BE PAID IN SENATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader Wednesday signed into law a measure appropriating $30,000 to pay for expenses of senators and to cover salaries of Senate employees for the duration of the current session.

The measure provides a fund of $4,000 for senators' mileage and $6,000 for expenses senators have in attending legislative sessions. Of the total $20,000 goes for salaries of Senate employees, including the Senate clerk, Senate reporters, librarian and other workers.

The governor also sent back to the house for amendment two House bills that would provide ladies' auxiliaries of veterans organizations access to municipal building rooms for their meetings.

Another measure sent back to the House for amendment would have limited to one the number of vehicle registrations for amputee veterans on which no registration fee would be required.

Hears Drass Employee On 'Fund Shortage'

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—The arraignment of George Ishli, former official of the J. H. Drass brokerage firm, on charges of embezzlement, was continued indefinitely by the Northumberland County Court Tuesday.

Ishli was indicted Nov. 29 by a Northumberland County grand jury and freed in $3,000 bail. He was originally slated to file his plea at the December session of the court which began last Monday.

Ishli was arrested last September following an investigation by the state Justice Department into what it called a $100,000 shortage in the Drass firm's accounts.

James Buchanan was the only U. S. president who never married.

THREATENS GOP APPOINTMENTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader, criticizing Republican senators for refusing to confirm some 125 appointments, said Wednesday he may resort to "more drastic measures" in replacing GOP-appointed officials with others "of my own choosing."

The governor made his statement after reports were published that his dismissal of David E. Watson as a member of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission was the forerunner to removing other GOP-appointed officials. Watson plans to contest his removal in court.

Leader said in a statement that he did not intend "to perpetuate the showman policy of keeping retrained appointments in office."

"In order to operate this government on the basis of policies and persons I consider appropriate," the governor said, "it may well be that I shall have to use more drastic measures in the near future to convince the Republican senators of my firm intention to discharge my duties as I see fit."

ATLEE RESIGNS AS LEADER OF LABOR PARTY

By TOM OCHILTREE
LONDON (P) — Pipe-smoking Clement Atlee, the mild-mannered Socialist who directed creation of Britain's welfare state, resigned Wednesday as leader of the Labor party.

A three-cornered fight for the top post in the British opposition party appeared shaping up among the deputy leader, Herbert Morrison, 67, 49-year-old Hugh Gaitskell, and Aneurin Bevan, 53, fiery Welsh leader of the party's left wing.

Bevan was given almost no chance, however, against Morrison or Gaitskell, both followers of Atlee's moderate policies. Morrison's age could count against him.

Characteristically, the 72-year-old Atlee almost tipped out of the party leadership he had held for 20 years — a record in modern British politics.

Is Visibly Moved
He handed in his resignation at a closed meeting of Labor members of Parliament which lasted less than half an hour. His colleagues saluted him with "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Atlee was visibly moved. His lips quivered.

Age and ill health were responsible for his retirement from the minority leadership in the House of Commons. The man who served as Britain's Prime Minister from 1945 to 1951 had found direction of the party's opposition to the Conservative government an increasing burden in recent months. Labor's defeat in the general election in May might have speeded his decision.

Last summer he suffered a slight stroke. He recovered, but found himself more and more fatigued as he conducted the party's parliamentary battles, often through all-night sittings.

May Accept Earldom
It was generally assumed Atlee would accept an earldom and move up to the House of Lords. He may become leader of the party in that more leisurely chamber.

Atlee's retirement from Labor's top post came eight months after his political adversary and wartime leader in the coalition government, Sir Winston Churchill, quit the chairmanship of the Conservatives at the age of 80.

Atlee served as deputy prime minister to Churchill during World War II. Then he supplanted Churchill at No. 10 Downing St. when Labor swept to victory in the 1945 election. Atlee presided over a series of sweeping changes in Britain and the empire.

REDS ARREST 2 AMERICANS IN EAST BERLIN

BERLIN (P) — The East Berlin radio said Wednesday two American soldiers have been arrested in Communist East Berlin.

The radio said the two were arrested by Communist police after they beat a male cabaret performer unconscious.

The broadcast did not identify the soldiers. Nor did it say where they are now, or what would happen to them. It said the man they beat up was Werner Liehr, of the well-known Distel night club.

A U. S. Army spokesman said he had no information concerning the incident.

The arrests came at a time when the Communists were issuing daily declarations that East Berlin is no longer Soviet-occupied territory. The Reds claim to have full jurisdiction.

Claim Is Rejected
All of the Western Big Three have rejected this claim. They declared four-power rule continues throughout Berlin and that Russia is responsible for what their Communist satellites do in administering East Berlin.

The East Berlin radio said Communist police gave this account of the alleged bar incident:

The two soldiers made provocative remarks to Liehr as they were leaving the bar. Liehr replied that they were on territory of the East German republic and that he forbade such utterances.

This angered one of the soldiers, and he beat Liehr into unconsciousness. The two then tried to flee but were stopped by a taxi driver who turned them over to the police.

Landis Tool To Buy Plant In Waynesboro

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (P) — The Landis Tool Co., Waynesboro, will purchase three buildings in nearby Mar Lin for a plant to manufacture precision parts, Edward A. Lynch, president of the Greater Pottsville Industrial Development Corp., announced Tuesday.

Lynch said the buildings were erected by the GPIDC from funds raised by popular subscription for the purpose of attracting new industry to the economically hard hit area.

He said the plant, which will turn out parts for precision grinding machines to be assembled at Waynesboro, would create jobs for 150 persons. He said the company plans to be in production next March.

Fire Demolishes Langhorne Club

LANGHORNE, Pa. (P) — Fire caused an estimated $100,000 damage to the clubhouse of the Langhorne Country Club Tuesday. All but the walls and a couple of rear rooms were destroyed. Estimate of the damage was made by Carl Chiolan, the club manager. He said the cause of the fire had not been determined.

CC STAYS RADIO STATION GRANT

WASHINGTON (P) — A grant made last Oct. 5 to Williamsport (Pa.) Radio Broadcasting Associates for a 1,380-kilocycle radio station at Milton, Pa., was temporarily stayed Tuesday by the Communications Commission.

The company now operates Williamsport station WHPA.

With the stay, the commission ordered a public hearing to start Jan. 23 to hear protests of Williamsport station WYLC and Milton station WMLP—both of whom claim they would suffer economic injury from the proposed new radio outlet. They contend also Broadcasting Associates' Williamsport and Milton stations would have a service area overlap.

The two protesting stations also ask the commission to examine the question of concentration of control of media of mass communication in the area. They say the principals in Broadcasting Associates also have substantial interests in the weekly newspaper Grit, published in Williamsport, and in the Rialto theatre there.

The Commission's original grant was made without a hearing.

Wright Brothers' Student Buried

Reid was born at Milton, Pa., and established his welding rod firm in Philadelphia. By 1926 it also had a Baltimore plant and he divided his time between the two cities. He moved to Baltimore in 1936.

Republicans Will Rewrite Excise Tax If They Decide To Support Leader's Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — A GOP senator said Wednesday that proposed manufacturers' excise tax, newly altered to exempt cigarettes, beer and liquor, would be "drastically revised" should Republicans decide to back it.

Chairman Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Finance Committee said any Republican decision to provide the necessary three votes for the 320 million dollar measure would mean:

1. Returning the tax proposal to his committee for amendments to exempt goods purchased by utilities paying the 14-mill gross receipts tax. This, for example, would include tires purchased by bus firms.

2. Cutting back the 3½ per cent rate if a Republican study now under way shows the yield would provide more than is actually needed to balance a Republican version of the budget.

Await Decision
"I don't know when the Republican Policy Committee will make the decision," he told a newsman.

"But if some Republicans want to vote for the bill, it will mean it will have to be 'drastically revised.'"

Only Tuesday night Senate Democrats pushed through amendments to the bill exempting cigarettes and alcoholic drinks from the tax since these items are already taxed by the state.

Sen. Watkins (R-Delaware) joined with two Democrats—Sen. Dent, party floor leader, and Sen. Barr, Democratic state chairman—in co-sponsoring the amendments.

Openly Backs Proposal
Although Watkins by his action became the first Republican in either house to attach his name officially to the tax proposal, he said his vote on final passage would be no.

"I co-sponsored the amendments so that if the bill should become law, we would not have the unfairness of taxing further any of these already heavily taxed items," he told a newsman. "Any more tax on whiskey would create more bootlegging."

The present state excise tax on cigarettes is five cents a pack; on liquor, 10 per cent plus a 48 per cent markup on liquor store sales and on beer, a cent a pint. "These amendments were necessary in the interests of simple justice," Dent told the Senate. "These items pay high excise taxes and the power to tax is the power to destroy."

Reports Are False
Asked about reports that these new exemptions were being allowed without prior clearance with Gov. Leader, Dent said they were not true.

In another legislative development, House Democrats Tuesday night failed to muster their full strength and saw defeat of part of the governor's highway program.

One proposal called for boosting passenger car plates from $10 a year to $15. The Democratic leadership, however, moved to revive the measure for another vote in the future.

In the Senate, Republicans pushed plans authorizing the special sale of $110,207,000 in tax anticipation notes and earmarking the money to pay overdue state aid to schools.

Release Overdue Pensions
The Senate also concurred in House amendments and sent to the governor legislation which would release overdue pension checks to 4,600 retired teachers and state employees.

Both chambers scheduled only routine sessions for Wednesday. On taxes, Sen. Fleming (R-Allegheny) said any talk on sales or income levies should be tabled until the Senate disposes of the manufacturers' excise tax.

"Let's not put the cart before the horse in this matter," he said. He made the statement as Sen. Taylor, Senate president pro tempore, declared he found "no Republican support" for passing a personal net income tax in the Senate.

Renews Opposition
The governor Tuesday renewed his opposition to the sales tax, pointing to Democratic victories in the 1954 and 1955 elections as mandate to continue his stand.

"I believe the manufacturers' excise tax, with proposed amendments now before the Republican Senate, removes the nervous contention of industry spokesmen that the measure is an iniquitous device to block the free flow of competitive enterprise in this state," Leader said.

The governor called for immediate action on the excise levy "to prevent total eclipse of the state's credit standing by the encroachments of self-engendered bankruptcy."

DAZED GIRL IN MEN'S CLOTHES IS PICKED UP

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP)—A minister's 19-year-old daughter, at first feared the victim of an abduction, was found Wednesday walking on the highway near La Junta, east of here.

Police Capt. James Rafferty said the girl, Donna May Upton, seemed to be in a dazed condition and could not explain her actions. There was no evidence, he said, to show she had been taken forcibly from her home.

She was dressed in men's clothing and her blonde hair had been clipped short, Rafferty said.

Shows No Signs Of Struggle
The girl was taken to Parkview Hospital here. Physicians said she had not been assaulted and her clothing and body showed no signs of a struggle.

Rafferty said the girl told officers at La Junta, "my name is Henry and I am from Baltimore." He said he learned Miss Upton has a boy friend in Baltimore. The girl said little else and seemed unable to respond to ques-

Ask Social Security For State Workers

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal that would open the way for state and local employees to participate in the federal social security system was ready for Senate floor action Wednesday following committee approval.

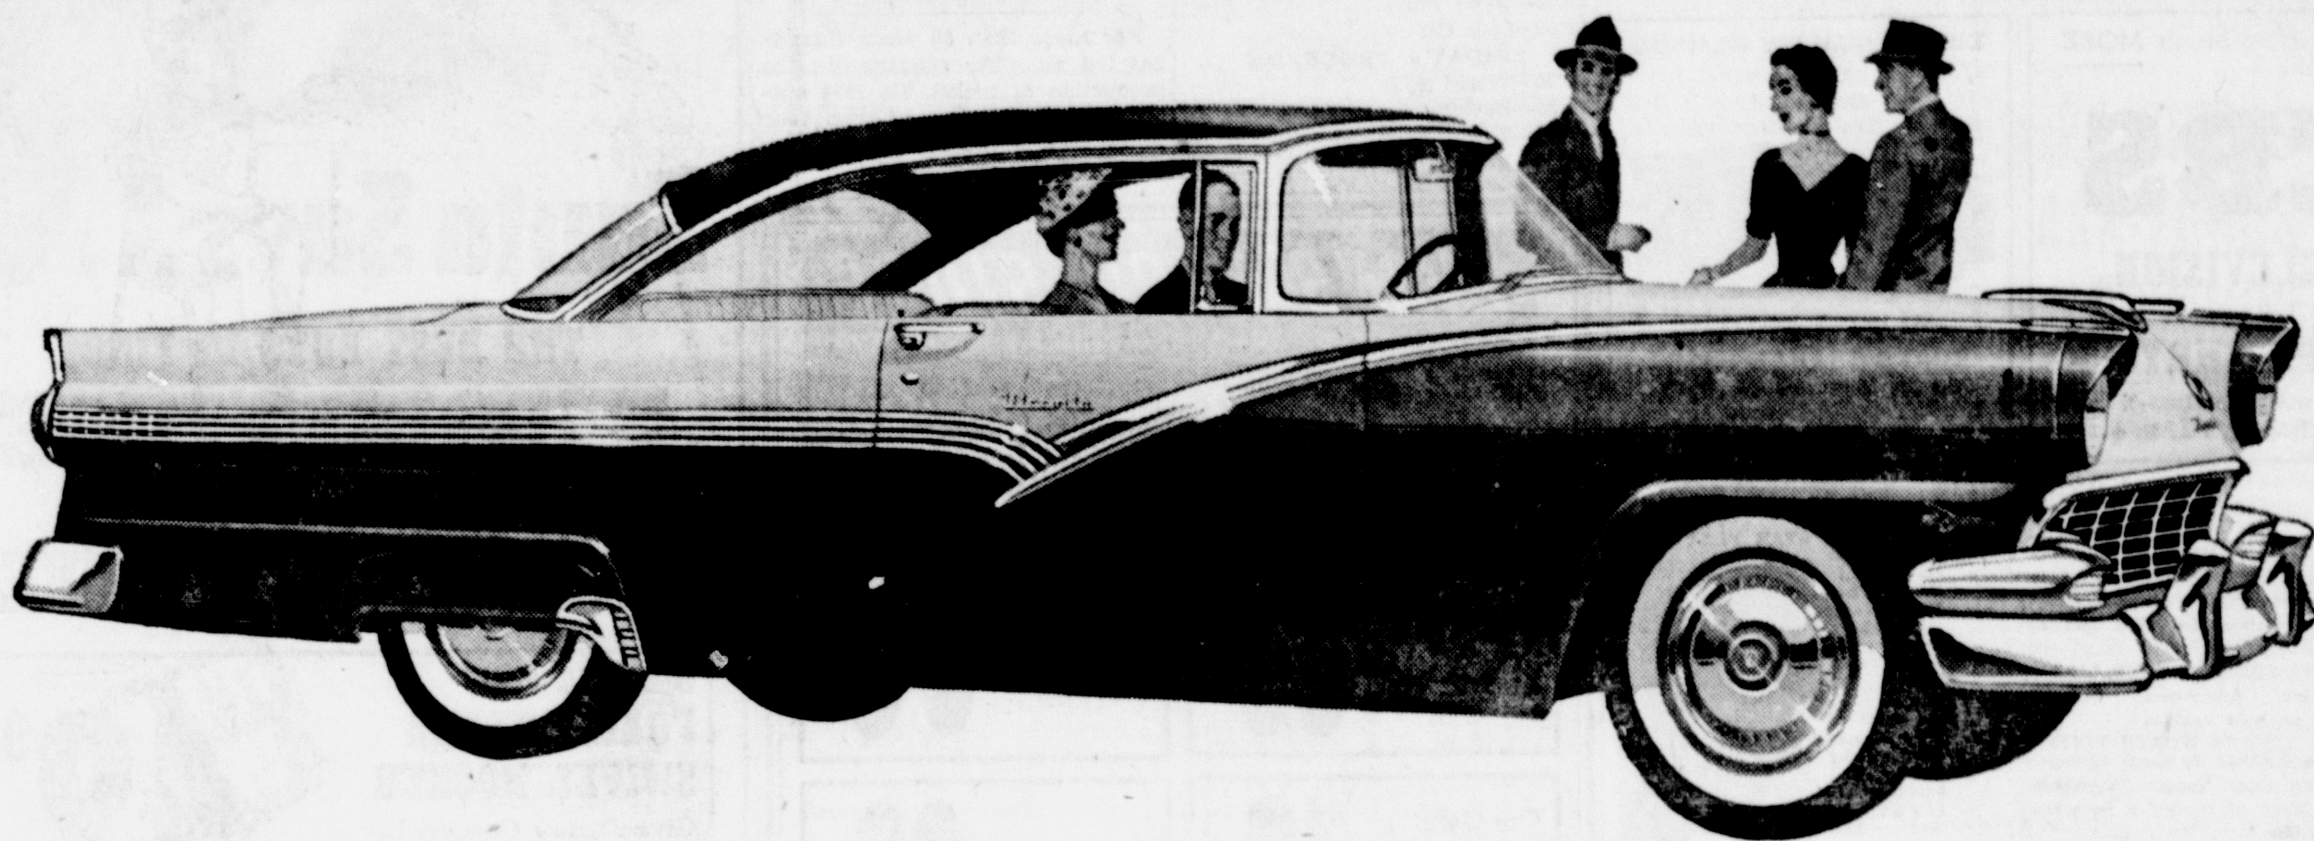

The Senate Local Government Committee sent the bipartisan package of eight bills to the floor Tuesday. They would permit state and local government employees to join the retirement system if a majority of the workers in each class so desire.

Also included in the proposals would be participation in social security by employees of Pennsylvania State University and teachers and other personnel in state teachers' colleges.

Rafferty said she appeared to be suffering from an emotional or mental upset.

Find Wristwatch
Her broken wristwatch was found last night near an asphalt back of her house. Shortly before this, she had borrowed her brother's automobile to drive to the post office.

The girl is a student laboratory technician at the state mental hospital here.

PUSH CHINA TO ABANDON VETO OF 18 NATIONS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Bolstered by the demand of 52 nations that the Security Council admit 18 new members to the United Nations, delegates pressed Nationalist China today to refrain from using a veto which could kill the whole package deal.

The General Assembly was expected to give quick ratification today to the Special Political Committee's recommendation that all 18 applicants be admitted.

The committee approved the 28-nation proposal last night 52-2 with 5 nations abstaining. Only a two-thirds majority was required in the Assembly.

The crucial test probably will come next week in the Security Council, which has the final say have promised to veto the 13 non-Communist applicants if the Chinese Nationalists carry out their threat to reject Communist Outer Mongolia.

May Have Votes

The voting in the Political Committee last night indicated the Canadian-inspired resolution had the seven necessary affirmative votes from Security Council members. This leaves only the big power veto which can kill any membership application.

Only Cuba voted with Nationalist China against the committee recommendation. The United States abstained, and has promised to do likewise on all Communist comes before the council. The Americans have said also they would not campaign against any of the Red entries.

President Eisenhower reportedly has sent two appeals to Chiang Kai-shek to refrain from vetoing

Outer Mongolia.

The seven Security Council members that voted for the resolution in the committee were Britain, Russia, Peru, Brazil, Iran, Turkey and New Zealand. Belgium and France abstained.

With the outcome hanging on the Formosa government, delegates have warned Nationalist China that to veto a proposal which has such overwhelming support might well cost her her U.N. foothold under the perennials demand to seat Red China in place of the Nationalists.

Sources close to the Nationalists say they feel they must reject Outer Mongolia as a Soviet satellite and companion of Red China.

EVER-READY GODFREY

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Midway through Arthur Godfrey's nationwide television program (CBS) last night the demonstration TV set of the sponsor rolled into the swimming pool of the hotel where the show was taking place.

Godfrey didn't let the sponsor down. He peeled off his clothes down to a bathing suit, jumped into the pool and delivered a straight-faced commercial on the quality of the set—wet or dry.

LONG OVERDUE

TAZEWELL, Tenn. (AP)—When Hubert Osborne, 50, saw six military policemen converging on his mountain home, he grabbed a sack of bran and ran to hide in the barn. He'd have made it too if a hole in the sack hadn't left a trail. The MPs returned him to Ft. McPherson, Ga., to face charges of being AWOL since 1942.

One way to repeat cooked rice is to add a few tablespoons of water to it and place it in a covered pan over boiling water or in the oven. Stir the rice gently a few times with a fork while it's getting hot.

LANCASTER HIT BY EPIDEMIC OF PARATYPHOID

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—An outbreak of 54 reported cases of paratyphoid here was termed an epidemic last night by the head of the State Department of Communicable Diseases. He ordered a mass inoculation program to start today among 35,000 persons.

It was believed there may be at least another 25 unreported cases. Dr. W. D. Schrack Jr., head of the Communicable Disease Department, said 16 cases were reported yesterday. He told a meeting of Lancaster City and County Medical Society and the State Department of Health that the outbreak is "a catastrophe every bit as big as the Stroudsburg flood."

He referred to the August floods which took more than 70 lives in the Stroudsburg area alone.

Most of the victims of the disease are children. Several have been reported in critical condition.

Milder Than Typhoid

Paratyphoid is similar to but milder than typhoid.

Typhoid vaccine and antibiotics are to be made available without charge to patients.

Dr. James Appel, president of the society, said the inoculations would not be effective in control of the present epidemic for at least 10 days.

With the first outbreak of paratyphoid, investigators said only one common factor could be found—that all persons affected used milk from the same dairy. The dairy voluntarily closed down pending an investigation.

History Snags True American Heritage

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Captain John Smith of Virginia's Jamestown Colony was saved from the Indians by Pocahontas but nobody saved him from the historians.

And more's the pity, says Dr. Jay B. Hubbell, professor emeritus of American literature at Duke University, a man who thinks a good story is a fine thing for the nation to have around.

A really good story, he said in a lecture at the University of Richmond, would have had the Indian princess marrying the doughty captain. Then, he added, they might have been the forebears of a great American line that would have included George Washington, Patrick Henry and Robert E. Lee. But historians just won't have it so and America doesn't have anything akin to Virgil's Aeneid.

IS THAT WHAT HE IS?

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Dr. Melvyn Johnson, chief of the mental hygiene clinic of the Veterans Administration in Providence and himself a psychiatrist, gave this definition of a psychiatrist in a speech yesterday. "A man who goes to a burlesque show and watches the audience."
